The main character, Tom, was funny but also very brave. My favorite part was the ending—it was amazing! The special effects were really good, especially during the car chase scenes. The music made everything more dramatic and interesting.However, some scenes were a bit boring because they were too long. After walking for thirty minutes, she does some simple exercises like running on the spot and stretching her arms and legs. Her favorite part of the routine is when she climbs the stairs near her house—it helps her strengthen her thighs and knees.Lisa’s friends often take the lift instead of walking, but she prefers the stairs. She says, “We should all move more during the day!” Lisa also reminds her friends that they shouldn’t skip warm-ups before playing sports. Warm-ups help prevent injuries to the ankle or shoulder.After exercising, Lisa eats a healthy breakfast with fruits and drinks plenty of water. She feels more energetic and ready for school.
