Reading comprehension / 1

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

Sea turtles are reptiles that live in the ocean. They are ancient animal that have been around for over 100 million years even before the dinosaurs. Today, sea turtles are endangered species too. If we don't protect them, they will soon be gone forever.

Sea turtles are endangered for many reasons. Some people eat them or their eggs even though it is not allowed. Other people damage sea turtles' nests. This makes it harder for sea turtles to lay eggs. When people throw rubbish like plastic bags, the sea turtles may get stuck inside it and some others might it. Some factories also throw some chemicals in the sea which also damages the turtles' habitat.

Many people and especially scientists work hard to protect the sea turtles so they do not die. What can you do to help? When you go to the beach, make sure not to leave any trash behind. If you see a turtle nest in the sand, do not touch it or move the eggs. Avoid beach campfires during the time the turtles are preparing their nests to lay eggs. Turn off the lights on the beach; turtles use the moon to reach the beach and by turning off the beach lights it will be easier for them to find their way.

A) Choose the correct answer from a, b, c and d:

1- The best title for this text is:

a- Beach Animals b- Save the Sea Turtles

c- The Beach Lights d- Sea Animals

4- Sometimes it's not easy for turtles to lay eggs because ……

a- they eat plastic bags.

b- there are chemicals in the sea

c- they have been around for 100 million years.

d- their nests are damaged by people

5-According to the text all the following statements are true EXCEPT:

a- Turtles are older than dinosaurs.

b- Turtles may get stuck in plastic bags.

c- Scientists are not doing anything to protect the sea turtles.

d- Sea turtles eggs are sometimes eaten by some people.

6- The main purpose of the writer is:

a- To talk about plastic in the ocean.

b- To tell us how to save the sea turtles.

c- To teach us about the life of sea turtles.

d- To inform us about turtles habitat and nests.

I. Reading comprehension/2

Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

An endangered animal, the giant panda can only be found in the mountain bamboo forests of Western China. There are only about 1000 giant pandas left in the world. Giant pandas are members of the bear family but they are not dangerous. Even though giant pandas look just like bears, they certainly do not behave like bears.

Pandas are vegetarians for the most part of their time. Their favourite food is bamboo. Giant pandas must eat a lot of bamboo everyday to live healthily. In fact, they spend at least 12 hours every day eating about 33 pounds of bamboo. However, if they are extremely hungry and there are no bamboo trees found they may eat grass, fruits or small animals like chicken.

Giant pandas do not live in groups. Each panda lives alone. They only leave their places from March to May to make a family. Female giant pandas usually give birth to twins. Baby giant pandas are very small, blind, pinkish and weigh about 5 kilograms when they are born. Mother giant pandas feed their babies with milk. A baby giant panda opens its eyes at six to seven weeks.

Read the following passage then, answer the questions below:

People have been inventing things for years. Paper was invented about 2,000 years ago. The wheel was invented more than 5,000 years ago. What would life be like without paper to write on or bikes to ride? Those inventions have made life easier, faster and more comfortable. The Wright brothers invented the first airplane in December 1903. Before the airplane was invented, most people travelled by cars, boats, and trains. Today, airplanes help people travel faster. We should feel grateful to those inventors who helped us a lot with their useful inventions which have changed our lives to better ones.

Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone in 1876. Before the telephone was invented, people kept in touch by writing letters or talking in person. Today, the telephone makes it easier for people to talk to one another. The first car was invented by Karl Benz in 1891. Before people had cars, they couldn't travel easily. They walked or rode horses for short trips. They took trains or boats for long trips. Computer was built in 1946. Today, people use computers to write and get information. Also computer is used in factories to control huge machines to make cars, buses and even planes.

Reading comprehension / 1

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

Sea turtles are reptiles that live in the ocean. They are ancient animal that have been around for over 100 million years even before the dinosaurs. Today, sea turtles are endangered species too. If we don't protect them, they will soon be gone forever.

Sea turtles are endangered for many reasons. Some people eat them or their eggs even though it is not allowed. Other people damage sea turtles' nests. This makes it harder for sea turtles to lay eggs. When people throw rubbish like plastic bags, the sea turtles may get stuck inside it and some others might it. Some factories also throw some chemicals in the sea which also damages the turtles' habitat.

Many people and especially scientists work hard to protect the sea turtles so they do not die. What can you do to help? When you go to the beach, make sure not to leave any trash behind. If you see a turtle nest in the sand, do not touch it or move the eggs. Avoid beach campfires during the time the turtles are preparing their nests to lay eggs. Turn off the lights on the beach; turtles use the moon to reach the beach and by turning off the beach lights it will be easier for them to find their way.

8- According to the text, what can we do to protect the sea turtles?

Turning off the beach lights / Avoiding campfires during the time sea turtles are preparing their nest to lay eggs/ not leaving any trash behind.

I. Reading comprehension/2

Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

An endangered animal, the giant panda can only be found in the mountain bamboo forests of Western China. There are only about 1000 giant pandas left in the world. Giant pandas are members of the bear family but they are not dangerous. Even though giant pandas look just like bears, they certainly do not behave like bears.

Pandas are vegetarians for the most part of their time. Their favourite food is bamboo. Giant pandas must eat a lot of bamboo everyday to live healthily. In fact, they spend at least 12 hours every day eating about 33 pounds of bamboo. However, if they are extremely hungry and there are no bamboo trees found they may eat grass, fruits or small animals like chicken.

Giant pandas do not live in groups. Each panda lives alone. They only leave their places from March to May to make a family. Female giant pandas usually give birth to twins. Baby giant pandas are very small, blind, pinkish and weigh about 5 kilograms when they are born. Mother giant pandas feed their babies with milk. A baby giant panda opens its eyes at six to seven weeks.
