The name "Hershey" is known throughout the world. Milton Hershey died in 1945, but the chocolate factory and Hershey's chocolate continues to be made in Hersey, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Hershey thought it would be a good idea for her son Milton to learn a business from someone who was a successful businessman. So when Milton finished fourth grade, she arranged for Milton to become a printer and to learn about print, newspapers, and books.

However, Milton did not like this kind of work and soon he was serving as a trainee under his father who got a new job in a candy factory where he helped to make candy. After a few years, Milton knew that he was a good candy maker and he wanted to start his own candy business. He tried to build several businesses in many different cities, and he did not give up until his candy business was finally a success. He learned to make caramels and to expand the kinds of candy he made. When he was 29-years-old, he moved back to Pennsylvania to start a caramel business, and in four years his business was very successful.

After he saw how chocolate was made , Milton bought the equipment needed to make similar chocolates and established the caramel company. After a long time of deciding, he sold it for $1,000,000 dollars and opened up a chocolate factory. The Hershey Chocolate Company grew to make sweet chocolate and cocoa.
