

Quizzes

اختبارات قصيرة

2026 - 2027

Grade : 12

By: Mr. FUAD HASHEM

Better
Ideas
Brighter
Future

Quiz (No 1)(I) Vocabulary (4 Marks)*(A) Fill in the blanks with the most suitable words from the list below: (4 x 1 = 4 Marks) welfare - define - jury - penalty - enforce

- 1 Schools must strict rules against bullying.
- 2 Each member of the took detailed notes during the trial.
- 3 The for stealing can be a few years in prison.
- 4 A good government cares about the of its people.

(II) Grammar (3 Marks)(B) From A, B, or C, choose the correct answer: (3 x 1 = 3 Marks)

- 5 The police protect people. (Add a question tag)
(A) The police protect people, don't they?
(B) The police protect people, aren't they?
(C) The police protect people, did they?
- 6 Judges work in courts. Teachers work in schools. (Use: whereas)
(A) Judges work in courts, teachers whereas work in schools.
(B) Judges work in courts. Teachers work in schools whereas.
(C) Judges work in courts, whereas teachers work in schools.
- 7 The government (pass) a new law already. (Correct the verb)
(A) The government is passing a new law already.
(B) The government has passed a new law already.
(C) The government passes a new law already.

(III) Writing (8 Marks) (Expository)

A safe society begins with good laws.

Plan and write a paragraph of about 6 sentences explaining why law is important in our society.

The Outline (1 Mark)

1 Introductory sentence:

2 Supporting details:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

3 Concluding sentence:

Write your paragraph here (7 Marks)

ENGLISH

Grade	Rubrics	Mark	Total Mark
12	Outlining	1	8
	Exposition of ideas & coherence	5
	Paragraphing and number of sentences	1
	Spelling, grammar and punctuation	1

Quiz (No 2)(I) Vocabulary (4 Marks)*(A) Fill in the blanks with the most suitable words from the list below: (4 x 1 = 4 Marks)

consultation - violence - legal - property - innocent

- 1 Without law, there would be more in the streets.
- 2 Stealing another person's is a crime.
- 3 The judge said the man was, so he went home free.
- 4 It is not to drive without a driving licence.

(II) Grammar (3 Marks)(B) From A, B, or C, choose the correct answer: (3 x 1 = 3 Marks)

- 5 People can't live safely without law. (Add a question tag)
(A) People can't live safely without law, can they?
(B) People can't live safely without law, could they?
(C) People can't live safely without law, do they?
- 6 The case was small. It took a long time. (Use: but)
(A) The case was small, but it took a long time.
(B) The case was small, it took a long time, but.
(C) But the case was small, it took a long time.
- 7 The lawyers (talk) for two hours and are still there. (Correct the verb)
(A) The lawyers are talking for two hours and are still there.
(B) The lawyers talked for two hours and are still there.
(C) The lawyers have been talking for two hours and are still there.

(III) Writing (8 Marks) (Expository)

Without rules, there is no peace.

Plan and write a paragraph of about 6 sentences describing what would happen in our society without law.

The Outline (1 Mark)

1 Introductory sentence:

.....

.....

.....

.....

2 Supporting details:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

3 Concluding sentence:

Write your paragraph here (7 Marks)

ENGLISH

Grade	Rubrics	Mark	Total Mark
12	Outlining	1	8
	Exposition of ideas & coherence	5
	Paragraphing and number of sentences	1
	Spelling, grammar and punctuation	1

Quiz (No 3)(I) Vocabulary (4 Marks)*(A) Fill in the blanks with the most suitable words from the list below: (4 x 1 = 4 Marks)

adoption - petty - innocent - case - rows

- 1 Don't waste time arguing over details.
- 2 There is not enough evidence to bring this to court.
- 3 They reserved three full of seats for the wedding guests.
- 4 Legal grants the child full rights as a family member.

(II) Grammar (3 Marks)(B) From A, B, or C, choose the correct answer: (3 x 1 = 3 Marks)

- 5 Sara isn't a lawyer. (Add a question tag)
(A) Sara isn't a lawyer, was she?
(B) Sara isn't a lawyer, does she?
(C) Sara isn't a lawyer, is she?
- 6 Omar walked to the gym. He did not take a taxi. (Use: instead of)
(A) Omar walked to the gym instead of he took a taxi.
(B) Omar walked to the gym instead of taking a taxi.
(C) Omar walked to the gym instead taking a taxi.
- 7 The judge (hear) three cases so far. (Correct the verb)
(A) The judge has heard three cases so far.
(B) The judge hears three cases so far.
(C) The judge heard three cases so far.

(III) Writing (8 Marks) (Expository)

Small problems need simple solutions.

Plan and write a paragraph of about 6 sentences explaining why petty cases should not be taken to court.

The Outline (1 Mark)

1 Introductory sentence:

.....

.....

.....

2 Supporting details:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

3 Concluding sentence:

Write your paragraph here (7 Marks)

[illegible]

Grade	Rubrics	Mark	Total Mark
12	Outlining	1	8
	Exposition of ideas & coherence	5
	Paragraphing and number of sentences	1
	Spelling, grammar and punctuation	1

Quiz (No 4)(I) Vocabulary (4 Marks)*(A) Fill in the blanks with the most suitable words from the list below: (4 x 1 = 4 Marks)

defence - prosecute - penalty - bench - judiciary

- 1 Police are collecting evidence to the suspect properly.
- 2 An old man was reading a newspaper on the
- 3 Trees act as a natural against strong winds.
- 4 The government raised the for illegal parking.

(II) Grammar (3 Marks)(B) From A, B, or C, choose the correct answer: (3 x 1 = 3 Marks)

- 5 Ahmad won the race. (Add a question tag)
(A) Ahmad won the race, wasn't he?
(B) Ahmad won the race, didn't he?
(C) Ahmad won the race, won't he?
- 6 Living in a city is exciting. It is very noisy. (Use: on the other hand)
(A) Living in a city is exciting. On the other hand very noisy.
(B) On the other hand, living in a city is exciting. It is very noisy.
(C) Living in a city is exciting. On the other hand, it is very noisy.
- 7 The workers (wait) outside the court since eight o'clock. (Correct the verb)
(A) The workers have been waiting outside the court since eight o'clock.
(B) The workers are waiting outside the court since eight o'clock.
(C) The workers waited outside the court since eight o'clock.

(III) Writing (8 Marks) (Expository)

Courts help people get their rights.

Plan and write a paragraph of about 6 sentences explaining why petty cases should sometimes be taken to court.

The Outline (1 Mark)

1 Introductory sentence:

2 Supporting details:

[illegible]

3 Concluding sentence:

Write your paragraph here (7 Marks)

ENGLISH

Grade	Rubrics	Mark	Total Mark
12	Outlining	1	8
	Exposition of ideas & coherence	5
	Paragraphing and number of sentences	1
	Spelling, grammar and punctuation	1

Quiz (No 5)(I) Vocabulary (4 Marks)*(A) Fill in the blanks with the most suitable words from the list below: (4 x 1 = 4 Marks)

supporter - speed limit - intend - impose - residential area

- 1 Cars must drive slowly when passing through a/an
- 2 The on this road is 40 kilometres per hour.
- 3 The school decided to strict rules on phone usage.
- 4 My family has always been my biggest in life.

(II) Grammar (3 Marks)(B) From A, B, or C, choose the correct answer: (3 x 1 = 3 Marks)

- 5 The new road signs will help drivers. (Add a question tag)
(A) The new road signs will help drivers, don't they?
(B) The new road signs will help drivers, would they?
(C) The new road signs will help drivers, won't they?
- 6 The old road is narrow. The new road is wide. (Use: in comparison with)
(A) In comparison with the old road, the new road is wide.
(B) The old road is narrow in comparison the new road is wide.
(C) In comparison with the old road is narrow, the new road is wide.
- 7 It (rain) heavily for three hours. (Correct the verb)
(A) It is raining heavily for three hours.
(B) It has been raining heavily for three hours.
(C) It rains heavily for three hours.

(III) Writing (8 Marks) (Expository)

Safe roads begin with careful drivers.

Plan and write a paragraph of about 6 sentences suggesting ways to prevent speeding in residential areas.

The Outline (1 Mark)

1 Introductory sentence:

2 Supporting details:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

3 Concluding sentence:

.....

Write your paragraph here (7 Marks)

ENGLISH

Grade	Rubrics	Mark	Total Mark
12	Outlining	1	8
	Exposition of ideas & coherence	5
	Paragraphing and number of sentences	1
	Spelling, grammar and punctuation	1

Quiz (No 6)(I) Vocabulary (4 Marks)*(A) Fill in the blanks with the most suitable words from the list below: (4 x 1 = 4 Marks) welfare – supporter – clogs up – intends – property

- 1 Heavy morning traffic usually the main highway.
- 2 She to visit her grandparents this weekend.
- 3 The value of this has increased over the years.
- 4 Fresh air and rest are essential for a worker's overall

(II) Grammar (3 Marks)(B) From A, B, or C, choose the correct answer: (3 x 1 = 3 Marks)

- 5 You haven't seen the new road signs. (Add a question tag)
(A) You haven't seen the new road signs, hadn't you?
(B) You haven't seen the new road signs, have you?
(C) You haven't seen the new road signs, didn't you?
- 6 Speeding saves a few minutes. It can cost a life. (Use: but)
(A) Speeding saves a few minutes, but it can cost a life.
(B) But speeding saves a few minutes, it can cost a life.
(C) Speeding saves a few minutes, but costing a life.
- 7 The police (check) cars on this road since seven o'clock. (Correct the verb)
(A) The police are checking cars on this road since seven o'clock.
(B) The police checked cars on this road since seven o'clock.
(C) The police have been checking cars on this road since seven o'clock.

(III) Writing (8 Marks) (Expository)

Slow down and save lives.

Plan and write a paragraph of about 6 sentences explaining why we should prevent speeding in residential areas.

The Outline (1 Mark)

1 Introductory sentence:

.....

.....

.....

2 Supporting details:

.....

.....

.....

.....

3 Concluding sentence:

.....

Write your paragraph here (7 Marks)

This image shows a blank sheet of primary-ruled paper. It features horizontal solid lines at the top and bottom, with a dashed line in the middle. A large, light gray diagonal watermark reading "ENGLISH" is visible across the page. The background is white.

Grade	Rubrics	Mark	Total Mark
12	Outlining	1	8
	Exposition of ideas & coherence	5
	Paragraphing and number of sentences	1
	Spelling, grammar and punctuation	1

Quiz (No 7)(I) Vocabulary (4 Marks)*(A) Fill in the blanks with the most suitable words from the list below: (4 x 1 = 4 Marks)

persuasions - tolerant - adoption - principle - consultation

- 1 He learned to be more after traveling around the world.
- 2 She needed a/an before starting the new project.
- 3 He always follows the of being kind to others.
- 4 The newspaper publishes opinions from writers of all

(II) Grammar (3 Marks)(B) From A, B, or C, choose the correct answer: (3 x 1 = 3 Marks)

- 5 The children are happy. (Add a question tag)
(A) The children are happy, weren't they?
(B) The children are happy, aren't they?
(C) The children are happy, don't they?
- 6 Some workers like quiet offices. Others like busy offices. (Use: whereas)
(A) Some workers like quiet offices, whereas others like busy offices.
(B) Some workers like quiet offices whereas busy offices.
(C) Some workers like quiet offices, others like busy offices whereas.
- 7 The company (not buy) new computers yet. (Correct the verb)
(A) The company did not buy new computers yet.
(B) The company has not bought new computers yet.
(C) The company is not buying new computers yet.

(III) Writing (8 Marks) (Expository)

Happy workers are good workers.

Plan and write a paragraph of about 6 sentences giving reasons why employees should be allowed to use work computers for personal purposes.

The Outline (1 Mark)

1 Introductory sentence:

.....

.....

.....

.....

2 Supporting details:

[illegible]

3 Concluding sentence:

Write your paragraph here (7 Marks)

ENGLISH

Grade	Rubrics	Mark	Total Mark
12	Outlining	1	8
	Exposition of ideas & coherence	5
	Paragraphing and number of sentences	1
	Spelling, grammar and punctuation	1

Quiz (No 8)(I) Vocabulary (4 Marks)*(A) Fill in the blanks with the most suitable words from the list below: (4 x 1 = 4 Marks)

legal - define - guilty - prove - govern

- 1 It is not easy to a large and busy country.
- 2 He trained every day to he could win the race.
- 3 It is not to share secret company files.
- 4 The dictionary helps us to new English vocabulary.

(II) Grammar (3 Marks)(B) From A, B, or C, choose the correct answer: (3 x 1 = 3 Marks)

- 5 The company didn't ban games. (Add a question tag)
(A) The company didn't ban games, didn't it?
(B) The company didn't ban games, does it?
(C) The company didn't ban games, did it?
- 6 Workers use phones. They don't use computers. (Use: instead of)
(A) Workers use phones instead of use computers.
(B) Workers use phones instead of using computers.
(C) Workers use phones instead using computers.
- 7 The manager (talk) to the workers for an hour. (Correct the verb)
(A) The manager has been talking to the workers for an hour.
(B) The manager is talking to the workers for an hour.
(C) The manager talks to the workers for an hour.

(III) Writing (8 Marks) (Expository)

Focused workers do better work.

Plan and write a paragraph of about 6 sentences giving reasons why employees should be banned from using work computers for personal purposes.

The Outline (1 Mark)

1 Introductory sentence:

.....

.....

.....

.....

2 Supporting details:

(Blank handwriting practice area)

3 Concluding sentence:

Write your paragraph here (7 Marks)

ENGLISH

Grade	Rubrics	Mark	Total Mark
12	Outlining	1	8
	Exposition of ideas & coherence	5
	Paragraphing and number of sentences	1
	Spelling, grammar and punctuation	1

Quiz (No 9)(I) Vocabulary (4 Marks)*(A) Fill in the blanks with the most suitable words from the list below: (4 x 1 = 4 Marks)

judiciary - innocent - handcuffs - guilty - code of law

- 1 The police put on the thief and took him to jail.
- 2 Every country has a that everyone must follow.
- 3 The government must respect the decisions made by the
- 4 The man did not break the law. He is

(II) Grammar (3 Marks)(B) From A, B, or C, choose the correct answer: (3 x 1 = 3 Marks)

- 5 Salem has paid the fine. (Add a question tag)
(A) Salem has paid the fine, hasn't he?
(B) Salem has paid the fine, hadn't he?
(C) Salem has paid the fine, doesn't he?
- 6 Driving fast is exciting. It is dangerous. (Use: on the other hand)
(A) Driving fast is exciting. On the other hand, it is dangerous.
(B) Driving fast is exciting on the other hand dangerous.
(C) On the other hand, driving fast is exciting, it is dangerous.
- 7 Reem (just / finish) her English course. (Correct the verb)
(A) Reem just finishes her English course.
(B) Reem has just finished her English course.
(C) Reem just has finished her English course.

(III) Writing (8 Marks) (Expository)

Safe roads begin with careful drivers.

Plan and write a paragraph of about 6 sentences suggesting ways to prevent speeding in residential areas.

The Outline (1 Mark)

1 Introductory sentence:

2 Supporting details:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

3 Concluding sentence:

.....

Write your paragraph here (7 Marks)

ENGLISH

Grade	Rubrics	Mark	Total Mark
12	Outlining	1	8
	Exposition of ideas & coherence	5
	Paragraphing and number of sentences	1
	Spelling, grammar and punctuation	1

Quiz (No 10)(I) Vocabulary (4 Marks)*(A) Fill in the blanks with the most suitable words from the list below: (4 x 1 = 4 Marks)

regardless - claim - intend - ultimately - prosecute

- 1 Some drivers that they did not see the speed signs.
- 2 The government will people who break the law.
- 3 After the trial, the judge decided to free the man.
- 4 The law is the same for everyone, ... of age or job.

(II) Grammar (3 Marks)(B) From A, B, or C, choose the correct answer: (3 x 1 = 3 Marks)

- 5 The police can stop speeding cars. (Add a question tag)
(A) The police can stop speeding cars, couldn't they?
(B) The police can stop speeding cars, can't they?
(C) The police can stop speeding cars, don't they?
- 6 Kuwait is small. Saudi Arabia is big. (Use: in comparison with)
(A) Kuwait is small in comparison Saudi Arabia is big.
(B) In comparison with Saudi Arabia, Kuwait is small.
(C) Saudi Arabia is big in comparison with Kuwait is small.
- 7 The students (learn) about law since September. (Correct the verb)
(A) The students are learning about law since September.
(B) The students learned about law since September.
(C) The students have been learning about law since September.

(III) Writing (8 Marks) (Expository)

Happy workers are good workers.

Plan and write a paragraph of about 6 sentences giving reasons why employees should be allowed to use work computers for personal purposes.

The Outline (1 Mark)

1 Introductory sentence:

.....

.....

.....

.....

2 Supporting details:

[illegible]

3 Concluding sentence:

Write your paragraph here (7 Marks)

ENGLISH

Grade	Rubrics	Mark	Total Mark
12	Outlining	1	8
	Exposition of ideas & coherence	5
	Paragraphing and number of sentences	1
	Spelling, grammar and punctuation	1	