Reading Comprehension 1

Read the following passage, then answer the questions that follow:

Nine thousand years ago, people did not have money. They traded animals and crops for things they wanted. In China, in about 1200 B.C., people traded shells for the things they wanted. Chinese people also traded metal tools, such as metal knives and shovels for the things they wanted.

Later in China, people made metal money. In about 100 B.C., the Chinese made money of animal skin. The first paper money was made from white coloured deer skin. It came from China about 900 years later. In about 700 B.C., people made the first-round metal coins. The coins were made of gold and silver. They looked very similar to the coins we use today. After people made coins in China, people in Turkey, Rome, Iran and Greece began making coins. Coins were very strong and could last a long time.

Money changes with time. No matter what it looks like, money means buying things. Money makes trading easier.

Reading Comprehension 2

Read the following passage, then answer the questions that follow:

Money is very important for life. Parents can spend it on their kids and on the house affairs. They can buy everything that their children need . They can buy food, drinks, clothes, furniture and cars. People earn money by working at all different kinds of jobs. You can earn money even if you are a child. You can paint a picture, make a card or design a poster to sell them to the others. You can use the money you earn to buy all your needs. Also you can save it in the bank.

Money is of two types; paper money, which is made of special paper and coins which are made from different kinds of metal. Money is a blessing if people use it in a good way. It is harmful at the same time if people use it in wars or to hurt each other. Some people think that money is everything in life. But that is wrong because many people don't have money, but they can live a happy life.

- d) money can buy food only.

B- Answer the following questions:

5. When is money harmful?

.....

6. How can you earn money?

.....

.....

Reading Comprehension 3

Read the following passage, then answer the questions that follow:

Running is a very interesting sport. It doesn't need expensive equipment. All you need is a good pair of running shoes and a safe environment. Running requires discipline and concentration. It's a sport that's good for your body and mind. Running strengthens your heart, lungs, and muscles. Running also gives you energy by increasing your oxygen intake, and it improves your immune system so you don't get sick as easily. It can even help you stay more focused in school because exercise helps you to think more clearly.

There are running clubs open to all ages. A simple Internet search can help you find some in your area. The programs show you how running can offer competition or just be for fun. They also teach runners to set realistic goals and take care of their bodies. Runners have great respect for each other because they know how difficult the sport can be. Running isn't always about how fast you are or how far you're going. It's about getting out there and doing it. If you're looking for more than just a sport, running may be the perfect choice for.

A- Choose the correct answer from a , b , c , or d:
