Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

Hi Jane

How are you? I hope you are fine. I want to tell you about my country Kuwait.

In the past, Kuwait was a small town surrounded by a wall. Streets were narrow, houses were small and there was no pure water or electricity. Fishing and diving were the main jobs. There were no schools, but pupils used to go to Al Mullah's house. They went there to learn reading, writing and study the holy Qur'an. People used to eat a lot of fish and vegetables. There were no restaurants like now. People used to spend the nights talking with each other and listening to the grandmothers' stories. Life in the past was simple and difficult.

Now life is different. Today Kuwait is modern. We can see high buildings and wide streets full of cars and buses. Many shopping malls have been built recently. Children go to schools to study different subjects. In summer when the weather is too hot and humid, many people travel abroad. Life today has become much better than it was in the past.

Write soon. Best wishes from Mona.

Read the following passage then answer the questions below:

Everyone has his / her own dream. Children dream of having certain jobs when they grow up at a very early age. They start thinking about that even if they are still young. Some of them dream of being doctors, wearing the white coats, working in hospitals, and helping the sick people. They always act and play the role of doctors doing their jobs. They imitate them as their ideal heroes.

Others think of being pilots, flying planes, travelling from one country to another and going to different destinations all over the world. They are happy meeting new people and making friends everywhere. Many other children think of being engineers working in building sites, factories or in companies. They build houses and very tall buildings for people. A lot of children dream of being teachers in the future, working in schools and teaching children of different ages.

Whatever your dream is, you should work hard. It is not hard to fulfil your dreams. Always remember; " Nothing is impossible, never give up and do your best to make your dreams true. "

Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

A week ago, the weather was cool. Many families went to the beach to spend nice hours there. While a policeman was driving his car near the beach, he heard a loud scream. The scream was for help .He turned round with his car, but he couldn't see anyone. Then he saw a boy running to him and pointing to the sea. They both ran towards the sea. They saw a young girl, in the water, screaming for help. She was frightened and holding a small piece of wood which was carrying her away. The policeman asked her to be calm. He jumped into the water at once. He swam towards the girl fast and pulled her to the beach. He called an ambulance which took the poor girl to a nearby hospital. The doctor examined her carefully and said that she was alright. The girl's family thanked the policeman and the boy happily because they both saved her life.

B) Reading Comprehension (16 marks)

-Read the following text carefully, then answer the questions below:

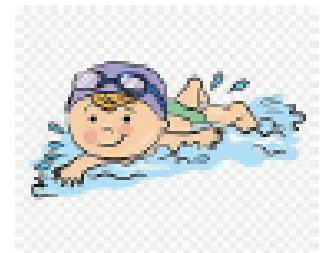

Learning something new can be a scary experience. Learning how to swim was one of the hardest things I've ever had to do. I was always afraid of the water, but I decided that swimming was an important skill that I should learn. I also thought it would be a good exercise that would help me to keep my body fit and strong. Also, it would make me a more confident person.

New situations always make me a bit nervous, but my trainer was very patient and helpful. He taught me to concentrate on my arms and my legs. I felt hopeless. Sooner than I imagined, however, things began to feel "right", and I was able to swim and shoot across the water. Learning to swim was not easy for me, but in the end my persistence paid off. I began to practise swimming from 4 to 6 daily. Now when I am faced with a new situation, I am not so nervous. I know that as I practise being in that situation, I will feel more comfortable. It is a wonderful feeling when you achieve a goal you have set for yourself.
