On Saturdays, Sarah and her family like to visit the park. It is a big park with green grass, tall trees, and a playground. Sarah loves the swings the most. She can swing very high and feel the wind on her face.

Her younger brother, Adam, likes the sandbox. He uses a small shovel and a bucket to build sandcastles. Sometimes, other kids help him, and they make big castles together.

Their parents enjoy walking around the park. They like to watch the ducks in the pond and take pictures of flowers. After some time, everyone sits on a picnic blanket to eat sandwiches, fruit, and cookies.

Sarah and Adam always have so much fun at the park. They play, laugh, and enjoy being outdoors. Before they leave, they help clean up and throw trash in the bins. A day at the park is always special for Sarah's family.
