

QUESTION 1

Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence.

During the academic year, the students are encouraged to discover their strengths and weaknesses.

Finally ✓ ▼, they are given grades based on their performance in the exams.

QUESTION 2

Choose the correct transition word to complete the sentence.

Dima: In my country, children start their education in primary school.

Next ✓, they enter secondary school. At the end, they have an option to join a college.

↕ Eventually

↕ Lastly

↕ Initially

QUESTION 3

Choose the sentence that uses a transition word or phrase.

Not all jobs demand academic experience.

With an academic background, you can choose many careers.

Some professions require tertiary education.

In the end, it might be difficult to change careers. ✓

QUESTION 4

Choose the sentences that use a transition word.

Initially, the basic geometry concepts are taught in the semester. ✓

The advanced concepts are taught at a later stage in the semester.

Eventually, the semester ends with the introduction to the advanced concepts.

An Introduction to Geometry is a popular academic course in the university.

QUESTION 5

Choose the correct answer to fill in the blank.

Students join special courses in colleges to learn specific skills. Then, they graduate and become highly ranked professionals.

In the text, the word is a transition word.

 become special highly

Choose the correct transition words to complete the sentences.

Education is different globally, but there are some similarities between countries. First, students go to kindergarten.

Then ✓ ▼, they attend primary school. Next ✓ ▼, they go to secondary school. Later, they join a college to study specific subjects.

QUESTION 7

Choose the sentence that uses a transition word.

The primary schools in the country give admissions to four year olds.

At the age of four, children begin to go to primary schools.

At primary school, children learn the alphabet and numbers.

First, children go to primary school when they are four years old. ✓

QUESTION 8

Choose the correct transition words to complete the sentences.

Sally: I want to learn Arabic, but I can't attend classes every day. What should I do?

Rose: First, find an institution that offers online classes. After that ✓ ▼, share the information with your parents. Lastly ✓ ▼, make the final decision.

QUESTION 9

Choose the correct transition words to complete the sentences.

Hamdan: Students in my country have to work hard to get admission into a tertiary institution.

First ✓ ▼, they have to appear for a written exam. Then ✓ ▼, based on their result, they are called for an interview.

QUESTION 10

Complete the sentence with the correct word from the word bank.

Word Bank

Initially	Secondly	First	Eventually
-----------	----------	-------	------------	--

Tim: Many institutions in my country offer distance learning courses. At the beginning, my father thought that distance learning was not a great concept. Later, he realised that with distance learning, one could work and study simultaneously.

Eventually ✓, he felt that distance learning was a good option.

QUESTION 11

Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence.

Julie: In my country, all students get the chance to attend a tertiary institution after finishing secondary school. After completing three years in a college, some students choose to enter the workforce directly. Others prefer to continue their studies.

In the end

, the students have the option to continue with their studies or begin working with a company.

↕ At the beginning

↕ Initially

↕ Firstly

QUESTION 12

Choose the correct word from the word bank to complete the sentence.

Word Bank

Firstly	Thirdly	Finally	Next
---------	---------	---------	------	--

Ahmed: How can I grow plants at home?

Suhail: First, you need to add some soil in a pot.

Next

, you

add the seeds. Then, cover the seeds with more soil, and add water.

Eventually, you will see the leaves growing in the pot.

QUESTION 13

Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence.

Moza: To bake a chocolate cake at home, first, mix the wet ingredients.

Next, add the dry ingredients into the wet ingredients.

After that, pour the batter into a baking dish.

Lastly

, bake the cake in the oven at 180°C for 35 minutes.

↕ Firstly

↕ Thirdly

↕ Secondly

QUESTION 14

Choose the sentence that Muhra can use to continue the dialogue.

Reem: What is the process of becoming a doctor in your country?

Muhra: To become a doctor, first, one needs to join a medical college. Then, the student has to study for six years.

- In the end, the student is ready to join the medical practice in a hospital. ✓
- First, the student is ready to join the medical practice in a hospital.
- At the beginning, the student is ready to join the medical practice in a hospital.
- Second, the student is ready to join the medical practice in a hospital.

QUESTION 15

Which sentences could Sultan have used to show the last step of the educational journey in his country?

Sultan: In my country, it is compulsory for every child to finish secondary school. After that, a student has to attend a college for three years. Eventually, they can enter the workforce or join a trade programme.

Initially, they can enter the workforce or join a trade programme.

In the end, they can enter the workforce or join a trade programme.

First, they can enter the workforce or join a trade programme.

Finally, they can enter the workforce or join a trade programme.

QUESTION 16

Complete the sentence with the correct option.

Pedro: In my country, first, not everyone can afford good quality education. Then, many children work with their parents on the farms, so they don't go to school. Lastly, very few students go on to study at a university because it is so competitive.

In the end

, very few students study in a university in Pedro's country.

↕ Secondly

↕ Firstly

↕ At the beginning

QUESTION 17

Choose the sentence that Sue should use to continue the text.

Sue: In my country, going to school is very important. Initially, primary school focuses on learning through playing and exploring. After that, students are encouraged to develop skills based on what they like.

First, some students attend university or college.

Second, some students attend university or college.

In the end, some students attend university or college.

At the beginning, some students attend university or college.

QUESTION 18

Which word means the same as finally?

Initially, Jason was interested in studying in his city.

Then, he thought about the idea of living on a university campus. Next, he did some online research.

Eventually, he decided to enrol in a tertiary institution abroad.

Eventually

Then

Initially

Next

QUESTION 19

Choose the correct option to complete Sally's sentence.

Sally: Initially, I thought I was more interested in academics.
Then, I realised how long it takes to finish tertiary education, so in the end , I chose to go to a trade school instead.

 to begin with

 at the beginning

 first

QUESTION 20

Choose the sentence that Jane could have used before the last sentence.

Jane: In my country, education is well supported. First, it is the law for everyone to attend school until the age of 16.

In the end, it is a student's choice to attend a tertiary institution.

Finally, the government fixes the tuition fee for tertiary education.

Next, the government fixes the tuition fee for tertiary education.

Eventually, the government fixes the tuition fee for tertiary education.

Initially, the government fixes the tuition fee for tertiary education.

QUESTION 21

Choose the correct word to complete the sentence.

Sultan: I think education is very important. First, the parents should find the right school for the child.

Next, the parents must check with the teacher about the progress of the child.

Eventually, the parents should encourage the child throughout the educational journey.

Sultan uses eventually to show the of his opinion.

↕ introduction

↕ middle

↕ beginning

QUESTION 22

Based on what June is saying, choose the correct sentence.

June: In my country, school is very expensive. First, we all wish to attend school, but not everyone can afford it.

Next, many families live on farms and need the older kids to help out, so we usually only attend primary school.

Some of the children in June's country cannot go to school because it costs a lot.

Every one goes to school in June's country and completes their education.

Every child goes to high school in June's country as education is very cheap.

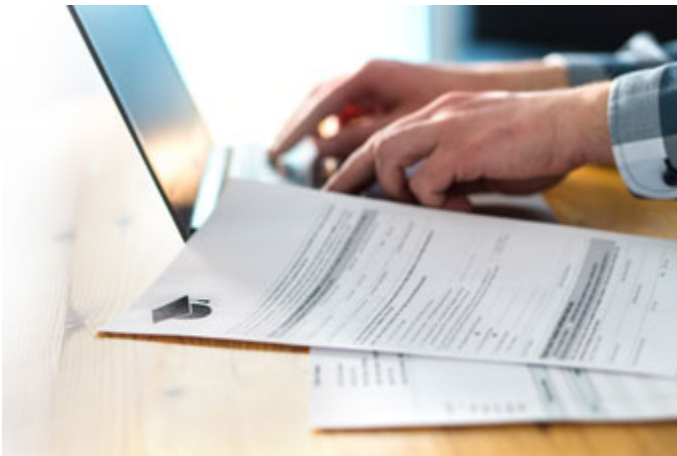

In June's country, children don't help their parents on the farms.

QUESTION 23

Choose the correct sentence.

Mike: First, read about the college and the different courses it offers on its website. Then, share your thoughts with family and school teachers. Next, submit your application on the website.

Mike is using first to show how to prepare for an exam to join a college.

Mike is using first to show the middle part of the admission process in a college.

..

Mike is using first to show the beginning of the admission process in a college.

Mike is using first to show the last part of the admission process in a college.

QUESTION 24

Choose the correct sentences based on the text.

Dan: Distance learning courses can be a great option for some people.

First, you can study whenever you have time. Next, you can take the exam at any time that is convenient.

Eventually, you can enter the workforce while studying at the same time!

According to Dan, it is very difficult to study in a distance learning course.

Dan thinks it is not possible to take the exams in distance learning education.

Dan thinks that distance learning is a good option for students who like flexible hours.

Dan feels that with distance learning one can study and work at the same time.

QUESTION 25

Read the steps for joining a college.

First, fill in the admission form.

Then, deposit the form and the course fee at the college.

Finally, attend the first training session.

Which other words could be used to show the second step of joining a college?

At last

Eventually

Next

After that

After that

QUESTION 26

Identify the sentences that use a transition word or a transition phrase.

There are many private and public schools in my country.

Initially, primary school focuses on learning through playing and exploring.

After that, students are encouraged to develop skills based on what they like.

Education is considered to be very important in my country.

QUESTION 27

Choose the sentences that are true.

Tour Guide: Here is the plan for tomorrow: First, you will have the breakfast at 8:00. Then, we will leave for Giza.

Tom: I know. We will spend an hour at the pyramids. Finally, we will come back to the hotel.

Tom would like to stay in the hotel the whole day and not travel to Giza.

The tour guide is using first to show how Tom will begin his day.

The tour guide is using then to show what Tom will do after having breakfast.

Tom is using finally to show what he will do after visiting the pyramids.

The tour guide is telling Tom about next week's plan in Egypt.

QUESTION 28

Choose the correct transition words to retell what James did on his holiday.

James: Last summer, I went to Egypt with my family.
We spent the first day exploring Cairo.
Next, we saw the famous pyramids at Giza.
Before we went back home, we did a boat tour on the Nile River.

Initially , James and his family spent some time in the city of Cairo.

After that, they went to Giza, and eventually , they took a tour of the Nile River.

QUESTION 29

Initially, Ellen was thinking of going to a medical school. Then, she thought about the expenses.

Next, she discussed the matter with her parents. Finally, she decided to enroll herself in a distant learning course.

Which word is used to show the beginning of something?

Then

Next

Initially ✓

Finally

QUESTION 30

Choose the correct transition words to complete the text.

Emma: The application process for the study programme in Canada included several steps.

First ✓ ▼, I had to write a motivation letter. After that, I had to appear for an online interview, and finally ✓ ▼, I had to take an exam.

QUESTION 31

Choose the correct transition word to complete the sentence.

First, the students are taught the concept of sharing meals with each other.
Then, the teacher introduces team-based games in the classroom.

Finally , the students are encouraged to play with other children in the school.

QUESTION 32

Choose the correct transition word to complete the sentence.

First, the students are taught basic concepts in geometry.

Then , they are introduced to slightly more difficult concepts.

QUESTION 33

Complete the sentence with the correct transition word.

- First ✓ ▼, you need to mix the dry ingredients.
- Next, you have to add the wet ingredients.
- After that, you pour the batter into a baking dish.
- Finally, bake the cake for 35 minutes in the oven at 180°C.

QUESTION 34

Choose the correct transition word from the word bank to complete the sentence.

Word Bank

First	Next	Then	In the end
-------	------	------	------------	--

George: Initially, I thought about studying abroad. Then, I considered joining online classes. Finally, I decided to attend a private institution in my city.

In the end ✓, George decided to join a private institution.

QUESTION 35

Complete the sentence with the correct transition word from the word bank.

Word Bank

Initially	First	Secondly	Eventually
-----------	-------	----------	------------	--

1. Cut a hole on the side of an empty bottle.
2. Put a layer of soil in the bottle, and then add seeds.
3. Add another layer of soil on top of the seeds.
4. Place the bottle in a sunny spot.

Eventually

, the flowers will grow through the hole in the bottle.

QUESTION 36

Choose the correct transition word from the word bank to complete the sentence.

Word Bank

Lastly	After that	Eventually	To begin with
--------	------------	------------	---------------	--

First, Jake made a list of the careers that interested him.

After that

, he found details about the different institutions in his country.

In the end, he chose the institution with the lowest tuition fee.

QUESTION 37

Complete the sentence with the correct word from the word bank.

Word Bank

Initially	Then	Lastly	After that
-----------	------	--------	------------	--

Rose: The admission process in the medical college is like this: first, the students take a written exam.

Next, they are called for an interview. Finally, the scores of the written exam and the interview are considered together for each candidate.

Initially

, the students take a written exam.

QUESTION 38

Choose the sentences that use a transition word or phrase.

Distance learning courses can be easier to afford.

Tertiary education can have very high tuition fees.

After that, students can choose to study abroad. ✓

In the end, most students choose a tertiary institution. ✓

QUESTION 39

Choose the correct word to complete the sentence.

The duration of the class is 60 minutes.

First, you need to introduce yourself to the teacher.

Then, the teacher will explain the concepts to you, and you can make notes.

Lastly , the teacher will give you an assignment.

QUESTION 40

Choose the transition words or phrases that are used in the text.

First, it is important to understand that education is different in every country.

In some countries, it is the law that every student goes to primary and secondary school.

In the end, tertiary education is optional.

first

secondary tertiary

In the end

<https://t.me/+CbbW8n6Up6U50GE8>

