Read the following passage then answer the questions below:

Ziad has never flown from an airport before. He was very excited as he rolled his suitcase toward the departing gate. A very gentle man checked his ticket . When he and his father found their seats, they fastened their seatbelts and waited for the plane to take off. "How long will we be on the air?" asked Ziad. "About three hours," answered his father. The time will pass quickly." Ziad started to relax a little when his father read a funny story. Then they played cards and read some more books to spend the time . At 6 o'clock pm later, the plane landed. He saw another boy who is the same age as his age getting ready to board a different plane. Ziad remembered how he felt. "Don't be scared," he said with a big, friendly smile. "Flying is fun. "
