Grade 6 Reading Comprehension Passages

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

In the modern world, technology has changed how we spend our free time. Many students now have interesting hobbies that involve using computers and the internet. One popular activity is digital photography. In the past, taking photos was expensive, but now it is easy for everyone. My friend, Ali, loves taking pictures of nature with his new camera. He uses a special computer program to make the colors look bright and beautiful.

Ali spent three months learning how to edit his photos correctly. He followed many instructions online to improve his skills. Last night, he showed his work to his family. They were very surprised because the pictures looked like real art! Ali felt a lot of confidence in his talent. He intends to join a big competition next year. He believes that using technology for hobbies is not just fun, but it also helps us discover new things about ourselves. It is a great way to unwind after school.

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

Many people think that technology only makes us lazy, but it can actually help us live a healthy life. Nowadays, there are many smart devices that track our daily activity. For example, some people wear special watches that count their steps. These watches tell you if you have enough energy or if you need to move more. My brother uses a mobile app to prepare healthy meals every day. It gives him simple instructions on how to cook fresh vegetables.

Last month, he started a new fitness goal to lose some weight. He used his watch to measure his heart rate while running in the park. At first, it was tricky to follow the plan, but he stayed strong. Now, he feels much better and has more energy for school. Technology makes it easier to understand our bodies and cause positive changes in our lifestyle. We should use these tools wisely to stay fit. Using technology for health is a very smart choice for everyone in the modern world.

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

Friendship is one of the most valuable things in our lives. Having a good friend means you always have someone to share your happiness and sadness with. True friends always cooperate and help each other during difficult times. My best friend is called Omar. We met three years ago in the school library. We both enjoy reading stories about history and the prophets. Omar is a very caring person and always listens to my problems kindly.

Last week, I made a big mistake on my math project. I felt very upset, but Omar told me not to worry. He spent his whole afternoon helping me fix the errors. Because of his help, my work became much better. I was very thankful for his loyalty and respect. This experience taught me that a real friend is someone who stays with you when things are hard. We intend to stay friends forever because our relationship is very strong. Society is better when people treat each other with such kindness and love.

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

There are many different types of sports, and it is important to choose the one that you enjoy most. Some people prefer individual sports like swimming or running. Others like team sports because they enjoy working with a group. My brother, Khalid, decided to join a basketball team last month. He chose this sport because it requires speed and great teamwork. At first, he found it tricky to bounce the ball while running, but he practised every day.

Being part of a team helped Khalid build his confidence. He learned how to concentrate and listen to his teammates during the game. Their goal was to win the school trophy, so they worked very hard together. Last Friday, they played an amazing match against another school. The game was peaceful and everyone played fairly. Even though they did not win, they felt proud of their effort. Khalid realized that the skill of cooperating is more important than the final score. He intends to continue playing basketball to improve his fitness.
