

Grade 8

Writing Guides

by Mrs Heba Omran

1. Global Languages

Intro: Why is learning languages useful?

Body: Talk, travel, jobs.

Conclusion: Enjoy the world!

Verbs: learn, travel

Adjectives: different, new

Nouns: languages, cultures

2. Social Media

Intro: Why is social media popular?

Body: Share, learn, be safe.

Conclusion: Use it wisely!

Verbs: share, follow

Adjectives: popular, safe

Nouns: friends, photos

3. Online Safety

Intro: Why is online safety important?

Body: Protect info, talk to trusted adults

Conclusion: Stay safe online!

Verbs: protect, tell

Adjectives: personal, strong

Nouns: passwords, parents

4. Describing a Place

Intro: Where did you go?

Body: Describe what you saw

Conclusion: Why was it special?

Verbs: visited, saw

Adjectives: beautiful, green

Nouns: park, lake

5. Describing an Event

Intro: What event did you have?

Body: What did you do?

Conclusion: How did you feel?

Verbs: played, celebrated

Adjectives: fun, special

Nouns: party, games

6. Giving Your Opinion

Intro: What do you think?

Body: Why is it important?

Conclusion: What are the benefits?

Verbs: think, believe

Adjectives: important, useful

Nouns: English, ideas

7. Describing Your Feelings

Intro: How did you feel?

Body: What happened?

Conclusion: What did you learn?

Verbs: felt, studied

Adjectives: happy, proud

Nouns: test, success

8. Comparison Writing

Intro: What are you comparing?

Body: How are they different?

Conclusion: How are they alike?

Verbs: compare, hike

Adjectives: exciting, fun

Nouns: trip, school

10. Explaining a Process

Intro: What are you teaching?

Body: What are the steps?

Conclusion: What is the result?

Verbs: choose, practise

Adjectives: simple, clear

Nouns: steps, language.

Writing Tips: "First, Next, Then, Finally"

- Use new vocabulary words.
- Write at least 110 words!
- Start with a topic sentence.

1. Global Languages (110 words)

Learning different languages is very useful.

First, it helps us talk to people from other countries.

Next, it helps us understand new cultures and traditions.

Then, we can travel easily and meet new friends. Learning English, Arabic, or Chinese helps us study and find jobs in the future.

Also, learning languages improves memory and thinking skills. We can practise by reading books, watching videos, and speaking with friends. Finally, learning languages is fun if we try every day.

In conclusion, knowing many languages helps us communicate, learn, and enjoy the world more. It is good for everyone.

Writing Plan:

●Introduction:

Learning languages is useful.

●Main Body:

Talk to people, understand cultures, travel, meet friends, study, find jobs, practise daily.

●Conclusion:

Learning languages is fun and helps communication and learning.

Questions:

Introduction:

What is the topic? Why is it important?

Main Body:

What are the reasons? What examples are used?

Conclusion:

What is the final opinion? How does it end the paragraph?

Vocabulary:

1) Verbs:

learning, helps, talk, understand, travel, meet, study, find, improves, practise, try, enjoy

2) Adjectives:

different, new, useful, many, fun

3) Nouns:

languages, people, countries, cultures, traditions, friends, jobs, memory, thinking, books, videos

2. Social Media (110 words)

Social media is very popular today. First, it helps people talk to friends and family quickly.

Next, we can share photos, videos, and ideas.

Then, we can learn new things from pages about animals, places, and languages. But, social media can be dangerous if we talk to strangers or share personal information.

Also, we should not spend too much time online. Finally, using it safely is fun and helpful. In conclusion, social media can teach, connect, and entertain us if we are careful.

Writing Plan:

1) Introduction:

Social media is popular.

2)Main Body:

Talk to friends/family, share photos/videos, learn new things, be careful online.

3)Conclusion:

Safe use makes it fun and helpful.

Questions:

Introduction:

- What is the topic? Why is social media important?

Main Body:

- How do people use it? What are the dangers?

Conclusion:

- How can it be safe and useful?

Vocabulary:

Verbs: is, helps, talk, share, learn,

follow, be, avoid, spend, use

Adjectives: popular, new, dangerous, safe, helpful, fun

Nouns: social media, people, friends, family, photos, videos, ideas, pages, time

3. Online Safety (110 words)

Online safety is very important for everyone.

First, we should not share personal information like our full name, school, or address.

Next, we should only talk to friends or family we know.

Then, if something online is scary or strange, we must tell a parent or teacher.

Also, using strong passwords helps keep our accounts safe. Finally, online safety helps us enjoy the internet without danger.

We can play games, watch videos, and use apps safely.

In conclusion, following online safety rules protects us and keeps us happy while using the internet every day.

Writing Plan:

●Introduction:

Online safety is important.

●Main Body:

Don't share personal info, talk to trusted people, tell parents/teachers if something is strange, use strong passwords.

●Conclusion :

Safety rules protect us and let us enjoy the internet.

Questions:

●Introduction:

What is the topic? Why is it important?

●Main Body:

What rules keep us safe online?

●Conclusion:

How do rules help us?

Vocabulary:

●Verbs: is, share, talk, tell, use,

avoid, helps, enjoy

- Adjectives: personal, trusted, strong, strange, safe, happy

- Nouns: online safety, information, people, parent, teacher, passwords, links, games, apps, videos

4. Describing a Place (110 words)

Last weekend, I visited a beautiful park with my family.

First, the trees were green, and the flowers were colourful.

Next, we walked on the paths and listened to birds singing.

Then, we saw a small lake with fish swimming. Children were playing, and everyone was happy.

Also, we had a picnic with sandwiches and fruit.

Finally, we took many photos before leaving. I felt relaxed and happy.

In conclusion, the park was a wonderful place to spend time with family, enjoy nature, and have fun. I want to visit it again soon.

Writing Plan:

- Introduction:

I visited a beautiful park.

- Main Body:

Trees and flowers, walked paths, saw lake, children playing, picnic.

- Conclusion:

Park was relaxing, fun, and enjoyable.

Questions:

- Introduction:

Where did you go? How do you describe it?

- Main Body:

What did you see and do?

- Conclusion:

How did you feel? Why is it special?

Vocabulary:

- Verbs: visited, were, walked, listened, saw, swimming, playing, had, took, felt

- Adjectives: beautiful, green, colourful, small, happy, relaxed

- Nouns: park, trees, flowers, paths,

birds, lake, fish, children, picnic,
family, photos, nature

5. Describing an Event (110 words)

Last year, I had a fun birthday party at home.

First, my family decorated the house with colourful balloons.

Next, my friends arrived and brought gifts.

Then, we played games, danced, and sang songs together. Everyone laughed and had a lot of fun.

Also, my favourite part was eating the birthday cake and taking photos.

Finally, we cleaned the house and said goodbye. I felt very happy and special.

In conclusion, my birthday party was one of the best days of my life. I will always remember the joy and happiness I felt with my friends and family.

Writing Plan:

- Introduction:

I had a fun birthday party.

- Main Body:

Decorated house, friends arrived, played games, danced, sang, ate cake, took photos.

- Conclusion: Felt happy and special; will remember it forever.

Questions:

- Introduction:

What event is being described?

- Main Body:

What happened during the event?

- Conclusion:

How did you feel? What is the final thought?

Vocabulary:

Verbs: had, decorated, arrived, brought, played, danced, sang, laughed, ate, took, cleaned, said, felt, remember

Adjectives: fun, colourful, happy, special, best

Nouns: birthday party, family, house, balloons, friends, gifts, games, cake, photos, joy, happiness.

Perfect! Here are writing themes 6 to 10, in the same full format: paragraph, plan, questions, vocabulary (verbs, adjectives, nouns).

6. Giving Your Opinion (110 words)

I think learning English is very important for students today.

First, English is used in many countries, in the internet, travel, and work.

Next, it helps us talk to people from other countries.

Then, it allows us to understand books, movies, and information from around the world. Some students find it difficult, but practising every day makes it easier. Also, we can read, write, and speak to improve our skills.

Finally, learning English helps us in school and life.

In conclusion, English is very useful because it gives opportunities to study, work, travel, and meet new people worldwide.

Writing Plan:

- Introduction:

Learning English is important.

- Main Body:

Used in many countries, helps communication, understand books/movies, practise daily, read/write/

Speak.

Conclusion:

English gives opportunities for study, work, travel, and meeting people.

Questions:

● Introduction:

What is the topic? Why is it important?

● Main Body:

How is English useful? What examples are given?

● Conclusion:

What is the final opinion? How does it summarize the paragraph?

Vocabulary:

● Verbs:

think, is, used, helps, talk, allows,

find, practising, makes, read, write,
speak, improve, gives, meet

●Adjectives:

important, many, difficult, useful,
new

●Nouns:

English, students, countries,
internet, travel, work, people, books,
movies, information, skills,
opportunities

7. Describing Your Feelings (110 words)

Last week, I felt very proud of myself because I studied hard for my English test.

First, I remembered all the vocabulary and grammar I had learned.

Next, I practised reading, writing, and speaking.

Then, when I got my test result, I saw a high score. I felt happy and excited. My teacher and parents congratulated me, and I felt proud. Also, I understood that hard work helps achieve success.

Finally, I will keep studying carefully every day. In conclusion, studying, practising, and believing in yourself can make you feel proud and confident.

Writing Plan:

- Introduction:

I felt proud after studying hard for my test.

- Main Body:

Remembered vocabulary/grammar,
practised reading/writing/speaking,
received results, felt happy, teacher/
parents congratulated.

- Conclusion:

Hard work makes you proud and confident; keep practising.

Questions:

- Introduction:

What feeling is described? Why?

- Main Body:

What actions led to this feeling?

- Conclusion:

What lesson or final thought is shared?

Vocabulary:

- Verbs:

felt, studied, remembered,

practised, got, saw, congratulated, understood, helps, achieve, keep

●Adjectives:

proud, hard, high, happy, excited,
careful, confident

●Nouns:

week, feelings, English test,
vocabulary, grammar, reading,
writing, speaking, teacher, parents,
success

8. Personal Story (110 words)

One day at school, something exciting happened.

First, our teacher told us we were going on a surprise trip.

Next, we got on the bus and drove to a science museum.

Then, we explored the rooms, saw animals, and learned many interesting facts. I enjoyed seeing elephants, lions, and colourful birds. Also, we did a quiz about animals and science.

Finally, we returned to school tired but happy. I felt excited and curious all day.

In conclusion, the trip was fun, educational, and one of the best days I have ever had at school.

Writing Plan:

- Introduction:

Something exciting happened at school.

- Main Body:

Teacher announced trip, went to museum, explored rooms, saw animals, learned facts, did quiz.

- Conclusion:

Trip was fun, educational, and memorable.

Questions:

- Introduction:

What happened? Why is it exciting?

- Main Body:

What did you do on the trip? What did you see?

- Conclusion:

How did you feel? What is the final thought?

Vocabulary:

- Verbs:

happened, told, were, got, drove, explored, saw, learned, enjoyed, did, returned, felt

●Adjectives:

exciting, surprise, science,
interesting, colourful, tired, happy

●Nouns:

day, school, teacher, trip, bus,
museum, rooms, animals, facts,
elephants, lions, birds, quiz

9. Comparison Writing (110 words)

A forest and a beach are very different but both are beautiful.

First, a forest has tall trees, green grass, and animals like elephants and birds.

Next, a beach has warm sand, sun,
and waves in the sea.

Then, people visit forests to hike and explore nature. Beaches are for swimming and relaxing.

Also, both places have fresh air and are good for health.

Finally, we enjoy both in different ways. In conclusion, forests and beaches are very different but wonderful places to visit.

Nature is beautiful everywhere, and we should enjoy it.

Writing Plan:

- Introduction:

Compare a forest and a beach.

- Main Body:

Forest: trees, grass, animals; Beach: sand, sun, waves; Activities in both; fresh air.

- Conclusion:

Both are wonderful and enjoyable; nature is beautiful.

Questions:

- Introduction:

What two things are compared?

- Main Body:

How are they different? How are they similar?

- Conclusion:

What is the final opinion?

Vocabulary:

- Verbs:

are, has, visit, hike, explore, enjoy,

should

● Adjectives:

different, beautiful, tall, green, warm,
fresh, wonderful

Nouns:

forest, beach, trees, grass, animals,
sand, sun, waves, sea, people, air,
nature, places

10. Explaining a Process (110 words)

Learning a new language is simple if we practise every day.

First, choose the language you want to learn, like English or Arabic.

Next, study new words and grammar using books, apps, or videos.

Then, practise speaking with friends, teachers, or family.

Listening to songs and reading simple stories also helps.

Also, reviewing lessons and repeating exercises improves learning.

Finally, practising every day helps you remember more and feel confident. Learning a language improves memory, thinking, and communication skills.

In conclusion, learning a new language is fun and very useful if you practise every day.

Writing Plan:

- Introduction:

Learning a language is simple if practised.

- Main Body:

Choose language, study words/ grammar, practise speaking, listen/ read, review lessons, repeat exercises.

- Conclusion:

Daily practice makes learning fun, improves memory and communication.

Questions:

- Introduction:

What is the topic? Why is it important?

●Main Body:

What are the steps? How can we learn a language?

Conclusion:

● What is the result of practising every day?

Vocabulary:

●Verbs:

is, practise, choose, study, learn, using, listen, read, helps, reviewing, repeating, improves, remember, feel

●Adjectives:

simple, new, fun, useful, daily, confident

●Nouns:

language, words, grammar, books, apps, videos, friends, teachers, family, songs, stories, lessons, exercises, memory, thinking, communication skills

All 10 writing themes are now complete.