Festivals

“Festivals are vibrant celebrations that bring people together. They offer unique experiences and unforgettable memories.”

Plan and write an essay of 14 sentences (160 words) describing your favourite festival and how it benefits the society.

Festivals are vibrant celebrations that bring people together. They offer unique experiences and unforgettable memories. In this essay, I’m going to describe one of the most important festivals in my country .

In fact, Hala February is one of the most famous festivals in Kuwait . During this festival, you will find people dressed in colourful traditional clothes . People start marching in the streets and their children enjoy playing with water . Also, you will smell the aroma of the traditional foods prepared specifically for this festival . National songs will fill your ears wherever you go . Moreover, streets are filled with amazing decorations using the colours of the Kuwaiti flag .

Such festivals are of great importance to the society . First of all, they attract tourists and become a good source of income . Secondly, they bring people together and encourage their sense of patriotism . Thirdly, they commemorate important events and unforgettable moments that happened in our country. Last but not least, they make us proud of our culture and remind us of our heritage ,

To sum it all up, I believe that festivals are the source of happiness and the best part of the year when everyone enjoys the feeling of oneness and togetherness .

Family celebrations

"Families around the world celebrate various occasions together." Plan and write a report of about 14 sentences (160 words) describing a family celebration you have recently attended: what the occasion was, how the preparations were and how you enjoyed it.

Families around the world celebrate various occasions together. In this essay, I'm going to describe a family celebration I have recently attended and why I like it the most .

One of the best family celebrations that took place this year is my sister's birthday party . It was a day filled with joy, laughter, and love. We had planned a surprise party to make her day extra special. The house was transformed into a magical wonderland with colorful balloons . A delicious cake, adorned with her favorite characters, was made for her . In the evening, she finally stepped through the door, we sang her the birthday song. We played games, danced to lively music, and shared heartfelt laughter.

For so many reasons, this has been the best family celebration so far. First of all, the party was a real success. We created unforgettable memories. It was a true chance to strengthen our family bonds. We really had fun and enjoyed our time . It was in deed a great way to get some positive energy and have fun with friends and family .

Overall, my sister's birthday party was a fantastic event and I'm so glad I could be a part of such a special occasion .

Diwaniya

“A Diwaniya is a traditional gathering place which has a significant importance in the Kuwaiti culture.”

Plan and write an essay of 14 sentences (160 words) describing your diwaniya and the various activities you can do there.

A Diwaniya is a traditional gathering place which has a significant importance in the Kuwaiti culture. In this essay, I'm going to describe our Diwaniya and the different activities we can do there .

The Diwaniya is a well-known tradition in Kuwait . like most Diwanis in Kuwait, ours is a spacious room adorned with rich carpets and comfortable green cushions . There are low tables on which we often enjoy strong, aromatic Kuwaiti coffee and dates . The walls are decorated with traditional art and photographs of our family. It is a place of warmth, hospitality, and connection.

Our diwaniya is more than just a room; it's a heart of our home. It's where we gather to share stories . It's a simple pleasure that brings us together. We talk about everything from politics to family matters . These conversations enrich our minds and strengthen our bonds. Moreover, our diwaniya is a place for relaxation and entertainment. We watch football matches together, cheering for our favorite teams. We also play board games, which are always a source of fun and competition.

In conclusion, our diwaniya is a precious space where we create lasting memories and strengthen our relationships. It's a symbol of our Kuwaiti culture and a place where we feel truly at home.

Meeting places

“Meeting places have evolved significantly over time, reflecting societal changes and technological advancements. From traditional coffee shops and libraries to online forums and virtual reality spaces.”

Plan and write an essay of 14 sentences (160 words) describing your favourite meeting place and what makes it so special.

All of us know that there are a variety of meeting places in Kuwait . In this essay, I’m going to describe a restaurant at which me and my friends always gather.

Every time I enter that restaurant, I find a wide variety of amazing delicious food . The smell of the hot bread is the first thing you will feel . On the right, you can find a very colourful salad bar . My favourite dish there, is the spicy chicken rolls . Many beverages are being served such as coffee, fresh juice and smoothies . You will never regret if you try their dessert specially their yummy chocolate cupcake covered with delicious creamy mousse .

No matter how many times I enter that restaurant, I always like to observe what is around . The smiles of the employees and the soft music always make me feel relaxed . Add to this the restaurant overlooks the sea which guarantees a wonderful view . Moreover, the place is adorned with fantastic decorations everywhere . Last but not least, the red soft seats are highly comfortable .

In short, I believe that such places serve as hubs for social interaction, learning and community building.

Learning a new language

“Embarking on the journey of learning a new language is a rewarding endeavor.”

Plan and write an essay of not less than 14 sentences (160 words) about a language you have recently learned, describing the difficulties you have faced while learning it and the benefits you gained from learning it.

Embarking on the journey of learning a new language is a rewarding endeavor. In this report, I’m going to describe the difficulties I faced while learning a new language and the benefits I gained from learning it .

The journey to learn a new language is exciting, yet it is not easy as it seems . Firstly, I took much time and effort to learn that language . Secondly, it was a must for me to practice that language daily which was time consuming . A third challenge that I faced was the unfamiliar grammar . Last but not least, I had to learn a substantial amount of vocabulary and idioms .

Despite these hurdles, learning a new language has given me lots of benefits . Actually, it has offered a window into a different culture . It also enhanced my communication with native speakers specially when I travelled abroad . Additionally, it has made me more self-confident . It has become easier for me to start my new business and reach out to other countries .

To sum it all up, I believe that learning a new language can enrich one’s life in countless ways .
