Football is a team sport played by two teams of eleven players. Each team tries to score goals by kicking a ball into the opponent's net. A referee watches the game and makes sure rules are followed so players stay fair and safe. The field is usually large and has two goals on opposite ends. During the match, players pass the ball to one another and try to move it closer to the goal. A coach trains the team before matches so they can play well together and win games. Football is enjoyed by children and adults around the world, and big events like the World Cup bring fans together every four years
