E-sports and traditional sports are popular competitions that many people enjoy.They are similar in many ways.First,they both need training and regular practice.Second,they both need strategy and teamwork.Third,they also need massive focus and concentration to win.They both have rules that players must follow.For these reasons,E-sports and physical sports share many similiarities

On the other hand,there are many differences between E-sports and physical sports.Physical sports need strong bodies and physical strength unlike E-sports which need mental skills and fast reactions.Physical sports are played outdoors and can cause injuries unlike E-sports which are played indoors using computers and the internet.We also cant get injured in the E-sports.These differences make each type of sport unique in its own way.

In conclusion, both E-sports and physical sports are important and enjoyable, but they are similar in some ways and different in others.
