B. Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)

- Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

Mike is a 13-year-old boy, and he loves waterskiing. Every weekend, he brings his ski boards to the beach. He has three boards: red, blue and white. Each one is special to him. His favourite boards are the white and the blue ones. He feels very excited when he rides them.

When Mike gets to the beach, the first thing he does is to look at the sea and take a deep breath. He watches the sea waves as they go up and down. If the sea is calm, he uses the white or the blue board. If it is rough, he uses the red one. He then runs to the water, feeling the warm sun on his back.

Mike started to practise skiing on the yellow sand. He believes that practice helps him to do better on water. When he is ready, he runs to the water and rides a wave. It feels amazing and exciting. Sometimes, he falls off his board, but he gets back on and tries again. For Mike, waterskiing is more than a hobby. It is a way of life. The sun, sea, and waves are his best friends. Every time he brings his boards to the beach, he feels at home.

B) Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

Every school has a science lab where students can enjoy science. Mr. Hamad is a science teacher who loves science. He wants his students to love it too. He believes that safety is important in a science lab.

In Mr. Hamad's lab, experiments could include dangerous materials, so following safety rules is needed to avoid accidents and injuries. As soon as the students get into the lab, he makes sure they know what to do and how to stay safe. He starts with a smile, handing out safety goggles. Next, he asks students to wear lab coats to keep clothes clean and tidy.

It is important for students to listen carefully to their teacher's instructions before they start experiments. Mr. Hamad usually tells students what to do step by step. They should never taste or eat anything in the lab because some materials might be dangerous. Students should also remember, if they spill something, they should tell Mr. Hamad right away so he can help clean it up safely. They shouldn't run or play in the lab because it is a place for learning and discovery, not for running races. By following these rules, students can have lots of fun exploring and learning in the science lab while staying safe.

- Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

Sara was a bright and cheerful girl who loved going to school and learning new things. She particularly loved spending time with her friends Jana, Mona and Rawan. One morning, as Sara walked into her classroom, after the break, she noticed something shiny under a desk. When she picked it up, she saw a wallet with some money and a school ID card. The wallet belonged to her classmate, Fatma.

Sara thought for a moment. No one had seen her pick it up. She could keep the money, and no one would know. But then she remembered what her teacher always said: "Honesty shows who you really are."

Sara went straight to the teacher's office and handed over the wallet. A few minutes later, Fatma came in crying because she had lost her lunch money. When the teacher gave the wallet back to her, Fatma calmed down and smiled with relief, feeling relaxed and happy as she hugged Sara. "Thank you so much! You saved my day," she said.

Sara felt proud and happy. Her teacher and principal praised her in front of the whole class for being honest. From that day, everyone respected Sara and trusted her even more.

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

Souq Al-Mubarakiya is one of the oldest and most famous traditional markets in Kuwait. It has a long and rich history that goes back more than 200 years. Before oil was discovered, the souq was the heart of trade in Kuwait. Traders sold spices, perfumes, clothes, dates, and pearls, and people from different places came to buy and sell goods. It was a busy and lively centre where families met, talked, and shared news.

Walking through Souq Al-Mubarakiya today feels like stepping back in time. The narrow streets, old-style shops, and wooden roofs show how life looked in the past. Many shops still sell traditional items such as incense, oud, handmade jewellery, carpets, and Kuwaiti sweets. Visitors can also enjoy delicious local food like machboos, kebabs, and fresh bread from traditional ovens. The smells, colours, and sounds make the souq a great experience.

Although Kuwait has many modern malls now, Souq Al-Mubarakiya is still special. People visit it to enjoy its warm atmosphere, friendly shopkeepers, and cultural charm. B- Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

The Leaning Tower of Pisa is located in the city of Pisa, Italy. It stands in a beautiful area called the Square of Miracles. It has 8 floors and is 56 meters tall. The tower is made of white and grey marble, which makes it look elegant.

The tower was not supposed to lean at first. It was built to be a straight bell tower. However, when workers reached the third floor, the soft ground made of clay and sand began to sink. This caused the tower to tilt to one side. Even though it leaned, the builders kept going, and the leaning shape became its most amazing feature.

Today, the Leaning Tower of Pisa is one of the most popular tourist spots in the world. Millions of people visit it every year to ascend its 294 steps and see the view from the top. Visitors also love taking funny photos that make it look like they are holding the tower. Even though it is not officially one of the Seven World Wonders, people often call it a "wonder" because of its unique features that turned a mistake into a famous landmark!

a. From a, b, c or d, choose the most suitable answer: (6X2=12 Marks)

- Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

Last summer, our school organised a trip to the Green Valley Mountains. All students were excited because it was our first camping trip together. The journey took almost four hours, but the beautiful views made the time pass quickly. When we arrived, we set up our tents, which were made of wool, near a small river. The sound of the flowing water was relaxing and wonderful so we took photos for everything we saw there. They were so amazing and memorable.

In the evening, our teacher, Mr. Fahed, taught us how to build a campfire safely. We cooked food, told stories, and sang songs under the stars. It was a moment of joy and togetherness. The next morning, we went hiking to the top of the mountain. We were so exhausted because the path was difficult and hilly but we helped each other all the way. When we finally reached the top, the view was breathtaking. Before leaving, we cleaned the area to show respect for nature. That trip taught us how to work in a team, honour each other, and protect the environment. Finally, we look forward to trying such amazing trips and learning many values in new places.

- Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

Animals are an important part of our planet. They live in almost every place on Earth, from the cold Arctic to the hot deserts. Each animal has special features that help it survive in its environment. For example, polar bears have thick fur and fat to keep them warm, while camels can store water in their bodies to live in dry areas. Elephants are also known for their excellent memory and can remember water sources and safe paths for many years.

Some animals live in groups, like lions and elephants, while others prefer to be alone, such as tigers. Many animals communicate in different ways; birds sing, dolphins use sounds called clicks, and dogs bark. Animals also play an important role in nature. Bees help plants grow by carrying pollen, and earthworms make the soil rich and healthy.

Sadly, many animals are in danger because of pollution, illegal hunting, and habitat loss. People can help protect them by planting trees, reducing waste, and supporting wildlife conservation programmes. Additionally, there should be strict penalties for those who hunt animals illegally. Every small action can make a big difference for animals and the Earth.
