B) Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)Read the following passage carefully, then answer the following questions:

16

Once upon a time, there was a young farmer named Jack. He was not active and didn't take good care of his farm. One day, an old man gave him a special golden tool. The old man said, "This tool can unlock a treasure, but remember, real treasure comes from hard work and being keen on doing your best."

Jack went searching for the treasure. He made big holes in the farm and looked everywhere for weeks, but he couldn't find it. Feeling tired and sad, he went back home.

Jack realised his mistake. He understood that the old man meant something important. Instead of searching for treasures, he decided to take better care of his farm. He worked hard and looked after it every day.

As time passed, people noticed the change in Jack. They liked his keenness and hard work. They respected him for his efforts, not for having a treasure.

Jack learned that true happiness and success don't come from money or even from having gold. They come from working hard, being responsible, and doing your best. It's not about what you have, but how you work and how to make others respect you, that is the real treasure.

B. Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)

Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

The bell rang. Our teacher had just finished explaining the lesson to the class. Before he could say another word, some of the students stood up. They were ready to head to the canteen quickly. Our teacher told them, "There isn't any need to run. Stay calm. There's much food and time for you to have during your break."

However, once he got out of class, the boys started running and pushing each other down the stairs. There was a lot of pushing, and laughing. Suddenly, there was a loud scream. One of the boys in front missed a step and fell off the stairs. He landed hard on the ground.

The boy had a broken arm and was crying out of pain. His friends quickly helped him up. The teacher called for an ambulance using his phone. While waiting for it, the other boys in the group were talking about the accident. They knew why their teacher asked them not to run on the stairs. Then the teacher said, "Let this be a lesson to you." The injured boy was then taken to the hospital. After one week, he returned back to school with a plaster on his arm. We all felt sorry for him.

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

Once upon a time in a peaceful village, there lived a wise old woman named Eliza. She was known throughout the village for her kindness and generosity. Eliza had a beautiful garden that she tended to every day. Her garden was filled with exciting flowers, and it was a source of joy for everyone who saw it.

One day, a young boy named Jack moved into the village. Jack was jealous of Eliza's garden and wanted to have the most beautiful garden in the village. He decided to steal some of Eliza's flowers at night. Jack carefully picked the most colourful blossoms from Eliza's garden.

The next morning, the entire village was in shock. Eliza's once-beautiful garden was missing its most pretty flowers. Jack's garden, on the other hand, was the talk of the town. But as time passed, something unexpected happened. Jack's stolen flowers began to die, while Eliza's garden slowly flourished again. The villagers learned a valuable lesson: true beauty cannot be stolen or bought; it must be nurtured with love and care.

Jack realized his mistake and apologised to Eliza. She forgave him and taught him how to tend to a garden with love and patience. Jack's garden eventually became beautiful, and he learned the lesson that true beauty comes from within and cannot be obtained through dishonesty or jealousy.

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

Padel tennis is a popular sport that combines traditional tennis and squash, making it a unique and fun game for players of all ages. The great thing about padel is that people of all skill levels can play it. The game is easy to play with a smaller playground than traditional tennis, which makes reaching the ball easier. The smaller playground also means that the game is faster than tennis.

Another reason why padel tennis is so much fun is that it is a doubles game. This means that you play with a partner, working together to hit the ball. This teamwork not only makes padel tennis more exciting but also improves social skills and cooperation among players.

So, if you are looking for a new sport to try or want to have fun with friends, padel tennis is a great choice. It is easy to learn, offers a unique and fast-paced game, and contributes to your overall health. Get out there, grab a racket, and start enjoying this fantastic sport today!

-Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

A zoo is a place where we can see different animals. In the UK there are forty- eight zoos, plus six safari parks. Some people do not like the zoo because they think that it is wrong to keep wild animals in cages. Other people agree, but they think that if the cage is large, the animals will feel happy. Animals have good food every day and if they are ill, they are given the suitable medicine. People don't have to worry about animals. There are all kinds of animals in a zoo: wild animals, small and even rare animals which are hard to find in the nature.

In the forest, small animals don't live long because they are killed by larger animals. In a zoo, these animals are safe. The very large animals, like lions and tigers are unhappy because they miss the wide, open places where they used to live and hunt. Most people enjoy visiting the zoo. They usually prefer to look at the large animals although they are not always the most interesting. Sometimes visitors to the zoo are very unkind to animals. They throw stones and other things at them and try to feed them the wrong food which is not allowed.

Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

Galileo Galilei was born in the year 1564. He was born in the town of Pisa, in Italy. His father wanted him to be a doctor. Galileo was bored with school. The only subject he really liked was Math. Because he was doing well in math, Galileo said he could become a mathematician.

Galileo began experimenting with different things because he needed to earn money. He tried to come up with an invention he could sell for money. He invented something like a compass that could be used to measure land.

Galileo heard that a German scientist had invented something called a spyglass. The inventor was trying to keep it a secret. Galileo decided to work on one of his own. Within 24 hours, he had invented a telescope. It could magnify things to make them appear ten times larger than real life. One night, he pointed his telescope towards the sky. He made his first of many space observations. Everyone thought the moon was smooth. Galileo saw that it wasn't. The moon was covered in hills and holes.

As technology has improved, today, the telescope is a wonderful invention that enables us to see objects far, far away.

B: Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)

Read the following text carefully then answer the questions below:

Water activities enrich our lives. People enjoy activities such as swimming, surfing, scuba diving and boating. They should follow simple rules to make water activities safer and to help keep everyone excited.

At the beach, swimmers should follow the lifeguard's instructions to be safe. Surfboard riders must stay away from people's swimming areas. When the sea is too rough or the waves are too high, they shouldn't swim. Scuba divers must make sure their equipment is working properly and in good condition to have a safe trip before going on each dive. They must also learn hand signals, so they can communicate with other divers under water. No one is allowed to dive alone.

There are special rules for people who like boating. First, they should make sure the boat is working well. Then, they can plan their trips. Checking the weather forecast is useful too. Moreover, they should wear life jackets, use sun cream and shade to protect their skin from sunburn. It is a must to carry a first aid kit, a flashlight and a rope. Taking a radio will also help them talk to someone on shore. Finally, people who like boating must watch out swimmers and people who are snorkeling around.
