Grammar

1- Possessive adjectives & pronouns.

Subject Pronouns VS. Possessive Adjectives VS. Possessive Pronouns

Subject Pronouns	Possessive Adjectives	Possessive Pronouns
I	my	mine
you	your	yours
he	his	his
she	her	hers
it	its	(We avoid using "its" as a possessive pronoun.)
we	our	ours
they	their	theirs

2- Present Continuous

Grammar Time

When we are talking about actions we are doing now and around now, we use the present continuous.

The present continuous is formed with the verb 'be' + an -ing form of a verb:

We are watching television. I'm not reading.

He isn't sleeping. They are cycling.

Some verbs have different spelling when +ing is added. These include swim - swimming and travel - travelling.

3- Comparative Adjectives:

What are Comparative Adjectives?

When we compare two people, actions, or things, we use comparative adjectives.

Look at the picture above. The man on the left is happier than the man on the right.
So, the man on the right is sadder than the man on the left.

When comparing like this, we use 'than' after the comparative adjective.

4- Superlative Adjectives:

What are Superlative Adjectives?

Usually, we can make superlative adjectives by adding -est to the adjective.

Tallest building

Smallest cat

5- Present Perfect Continuous :

Present Perfect Continuous

We use the present perfect continuous to talk about actions that started in the past and are still true or continue up to now (unfinished actions).

Positive: subject + have/has been + verb + -ing

Negative: subject + haven't/hasn't been + verb + -ing

Question: have/has + subject + been + verb + -ing

Examples

- I have been shopping all day.
- I haven't been shopping all day.
- Has she been shopping all day?

6- There is, There are

Is vs Are

Is	Are
We use 'is' when we are talking about one thing.	We use 'are' when we are talking about more than one thing.
There is a sandwich.	There are three computers.

Text 1 : The Land of Adventure

This summer, my friends and I are travelling across the country to explore the great outdoors. We are starting in the north, where the mountains are higher than in the south. There, we are going mountain biking and hiking every morning.

Next, we are moving east to try snowboarding on the cold hills. It's more exciting than hiking but also harder. Then, in the west, we are joining a camp for sailing and skydiving—two amazing adventures in land and air! My friend Emma is learning falconry, and she says her bird is faster than the others.

At night, we are skateboarding by the beach and watching the sunset. Everyone is smiling because we feel free and alive. Our goal is not just to travel, but to win memories that will stay with us forever. What about you—what do you want to do in your own land of adventure?

Text 3 : The Hike

You mustn't do it alone. "The hiking path is small and the area is too dangerous," Grandfather said.

"I think it will be fun," said Saad.

Saad and Ali always wanted to go on the hike together, without their grandfather.

"This is one of the best views I have seen. It's even more beautiful than Wadi Shawka," said Ali to Saad. The area was very green because of the rain fall.

Ali didn't forget what their grandfather said, "If you go on your own, take enough water and food. It can be dangerous if you get lost or injured on the hike. Have a meeting point in case one of you gets lost. Look for signs and walk slowly back to where you came from if you think you're lost. Watch where you are going carefully. When it rains, you must follow the signs because the area can get filled up with water very quickly."

Ali knew they would be fine if they followed their grandfather's advice. However, his biggest fear was Saad going off on his own. He stopped thinking and looked to where Saad was supposed to be. He was not there.

Read the text and answer the questions.

1. The grandfather describes the place as _____.

- A. not safe
- B. too big to hike
- C. a rainy area

2-Saad wants to go on the hike because _____.

- A. he always wanted to go on his own
- B. he thinks they will have a good time
- C. he wants to see some of the best views

3. Their grandfather said they should _____ when the weather is bad.

- A. carefully watch the water level
- B. hurry to the meeting point
- C. follow the signs

4. Why was Ali scared towards the end of the story?

- A. Water was rising in the area.
- B. His brother was missing.
- C. The advice they got was not working.

5. What is the story about?

- A. brothers that go on a hike
- B. a grandfather's adventure
- C. things to do while hiking

6. The story ends with _____.

- A. Saad going missing
- B. the boys following their grandfather
- C. Ali going off to do something

7. Ali will probably _____.

- A. find out where Saad went
- B. go to the meeting point
- C. continue the hike on his own

Writing

Write 110 words about going outdoor.

Answer the following Questions:

- Where and when are you going to go?
- What are you going to do, play, eat..etc
- Describe your feeling.

Model Example:

I think that going outdoors is important.

Next month, I am going to New Zealand. I am very excited! I am going to see mountains, forests, and rivers. I want to go hiking in the hills because I love nature. I am going to take many photos of the beautiful views. I can swim, so I am going to swim in a lake. I can also ride a bike, and I am going to ride along the coast. The weather is going to be sunny. I am going to buy gifts to my family and tell them about my trip.

These are the reasons why I like going outdoors.
