Rahim was born to a rich family. Even as a child, he would share his money with the poor, because he was generous with no fear of the future. He got married and had sons. No one went away from their home empty-handed.

Rahim ran out of money. His family had to go without food for months. One day, Rahim managed to get some rice, butter, wheat and sugar. The family thanked God for giving them food and sat down to eat. Just then an old man knocked at their door. Rahim received the man and offered him the rice. The old man went away satisfied. Half of the food was still left for Rahim and his family.

As they sat down to eat, a hungry farmer and his son came looking for food. Rahim gave them the sugar and butter. There was still some food left. As his wife sat down to bake bread, a traveller appeared at the door. He had four dogs with him. He asked for food for himself and the dogs. Rahim offered whatever was left to him. The man revealed himself as Mr. Ali, the mayor of the city. "Rahim, I have heard too much about you, so I decided to test you. We will be happy to give you what you will ask for. Mr. Ali gave Rahim a lot of gold and money. Rahim and his family never went hungry again and continued to help those in need.
