Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

Salem always liked to encourage his brother, Ali, and was extremely happy to go with him to the club. After putting on his running clothes, Ali left the changing room to meet the rest of the kids outside on the field. It was the last day of running races, and the weather was nice and cool. The coach and the whole school wanted to see which kid would win the race for the school.

Ali could run well, but he didn't know how well the other boys ran. Would he be good enough to win the first place for his school? Each time it was Ali's turn to run, he began shaking and it was hard to breathe. He was so nervous! The coach knew Ali was afraid, so he pulled him aside and calmly with a soft voice said “Ali, I've seen your running skills. You have no reason to be nervous! Take a deep breath. I know you can do it.”

Ali worked very hard to win the race. Taking a deep breath, he got ready with the other boys. He saw his brother Salem and the rest of his family waving to him, which made him very happy. As soon as the whistle blew, he started running. His arms and legs moved faster than they ever had before. He controlled his breathing and stayed focused on the finish line. Ali knew he had won the first place. Ali was smiling from ear to ear. He could turn his fears into the fuel that pushed him to win the race, which was his dream.
