Gr. 12 Passive Voice: Future Perfect Mr. Ahmad Hamza 00971528750021

Passive Future Perfect Tense – Explanation, Rules & Exercises

1. Understanding the Passive Future Perfect Tense

The Passive Future Perfect Tense is used to describe an action that will have been completed at a specific point in the future. The focus is on the action being completed, rather than who performed it.

2. Structure of Passive Future Perfect

Subject + will have been + past participle (V3) + (by + agent, if necessary)

Active Voice	Passive Voice
She will have written the report.	The report will have been written.
They will have repaired the bridge.	The bridge will have been repaired.
Scientists will have discovered a new planet.	A new planet will have been discovered.

3. Usage of Passive Future Perfect

- When the action is more important than the doer.
- When the doer is unknown or unnecessary.
- Used with time expressions like by next year, by 2030, by the time, before, by then, etc.

Mr. Ahmad Hamza 00971528750021

📌 Examples in Sentences:

1. By next year, a new highway will have been constructed.
2. The problem will have been solved before we arrive.
3. The invitations will have been sent by Friday.
4. By 2050, new medical treatments will have been developed.

4. Exercises with Answers

A. Convert Active Sentences into Passive Voice

Change the following sentences into passive future perfect.

1. The chef will have cooked the dinner by 8 p.m.
2. The workers will have completed the new bridge by next month.
3. The team will have won the championship by next year.
4. Scientists will have discovered a cure for cancer by 2040.
5. The police will have solved the mystery before the press conference.

Answers:

1. The dinner will have been cooked by 8 p.m.
2. The new bridge will have been completed by next month.
3. The championship will have been won by next year.
4. A cure for cancer will have been discovered by 2040.
5. The mystery will have been solved before the press conference.

B. Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verb

1. By this time next year, the building _____ (finish).
2. The new law _____ (approve) before the elections.
3. All the invitations _____ (send) by the end of the week.
4. A new road _____ (construct) by next summer.
5. The documents _____ (sign) before the CEO's arrival.

Answers:

1. will have been finished
2. will have been approved
3. will have been sent
4. will have been constructed
5. will have been signed

Mr. Ahmad Hamza 00971528750021

C. Identify Passive Future Perfect Sentences

Which of the following sentences are in the passive future perfect tense?

1. The project will have been completed by next month.
2. They will have announced the results by noon.
3. The documents will have been printed before the meeting.
4. She will have finished the book by then.
5. The medicine will have been developed by 2035.

Answers:

☑ Passive Future Perfect: 1, 3, and 5

❌ Not Passive: 2 and 4

D. Rewrite the Sentences in Passive Voice

1. The company will have launched a new product by December.
2. The government will have introduced new regulations by next year.
3. The artist will have painted a masterpiece by the end of the month.
4. They will have repaired the road by next Monday.
5. The school will have organized an event before the holidays.

Answers:

1. A new product will have been launched by December.
2. New regulations will have been introduced by next year.
3. A masterpiece will have been painted by the end of the month.
4. The road will have been repaired by next Monday.
5. An event will have been organized before the holidays.

Mr Ahmad Hamza 00971528750021

E. Correct the Mistakes

The following sentences contain errors. Correct them.

1. A new hospital will has been built by next year.
2. The road will have been repair by then.
3. The invitations will have be sent before the party.
4. A new vaccine will have discovered by 2030.
5. The problem will have solved before the meeting.

Corrected Sentences:

1. A new hospital will have been built by next year.
2. The road will have been repaired by then.
3. The invitations will have been sent before the party.
4. A new vaccine will have been discovered by 2030.
5. The problem will have been solved before the meeting.

F. Writing Practice

Write five sentences using the passive future perfect tense based on these prompts:

1. (a new airport / construct / by next year)
2. (the novel / publish / before summer)
3. (the school / renovate / by September)
4. (the patient / treat / by the doctor before the evening)
5. (a solution / find / for the issue before the deadline)

Key

- A new airport will have been constructed by next year.
- The novel will have been published before summer.
- The school will have been renovated by September.
- The patient will have been treated by the doctor before the evening.

A solution will have been found for the issue before the deadline.

5. Summary Table

Tense	Active Voice	Passive Voice
Present Simple	She writes a book.	A book is written.
Present Perfect	She has written a book.	A book has been written.
Future Simple	She will write a book.	A book will be written.
Future Perfect	She will have written a book.	A book will have been written.

Mr Ahmad Hamza 00971528750021

Mr. Ahmad Hamza

WhatsApp 00971528750021

Tiktok https://www.tiktok.com/@mr.ahmad.hamza?is_from_webapp=1&sender_device=pc

Telegram https://t.me/+V1Z8tSWa9c8zNWFk

Mr. Ahmad Hamza 00971528750021