Reading topics for Week 8

A Trip to the Supermarket

Sarah and her mom go to the supermarket. They walk straight and turn left. The supermarket is next to the library. They buy fruits, milk, and bread. Sarah sees her friend near the door.

Where Is the Hospital?

Ali is sick. His dad takes him to the hospital.

"Excuse me, where is the hospital?" Dad asks.

"Go straight, then turn right," a man says.

The hospital is opposite the park. Ali sees a doctor and feels better.

A Day at the Park

The park is near my house. I walk straight and turn left to go there. There are trees, flowers, and a small lake. Children play and run in the park. The mosque is behind the park.

Let's Go to the Cinema

Tom and his sister go to the cinema. They pass the market and the mall.

"How do I get to the cinema?" Tom asks.

"Go straight. It's next to the mall," a man says.

They buy popcorn and watch a movie.

A Visit to the Beach

My family visits the beach on Friday. We drive past the desert and turn right. The beach is beautiful and sunny.

We swim, play, and eat ice cream. The mall is opposite the beach.

Reading Comprehension

My city is small, but it has many important places. The school is in the center of the city. Next to the school, there is a big library where students can read and study. In front of the library, there is a hospital. It is very modern, and many people go there to see the doctor.

Opposite the hospital, you can see a beautiful mosque. Every Friday, many people go there to pray. Between the mosque and the school, there is a small market. In the market, you can buy fruit, vegetables, and clothes.

The cinema is near the market. Families often go there at the weekend to watch films. Behind the cinema, there is a large park with many trees. Children like to play there.

If you go outside the city, you will find the desert. Some people ride camels there and enjoy the quiet life. Not far from the desert, there is the beach. Many families go to the beach in the summer to swim and relax.
