

Reading:

Yesterday morning, Mr. Smith opened his shop and saw a broken window. He thought someone tried to steal something, so he called the police. Officer Lee came and looked around. Nothing was missing. Then she checked the camera and saw a boy playing football outside. The ball hit the window and broke it. The boy said sorry, and his parents paid for the glass. Mr. Smith smiled and forgave him.

Choose the correct answer:

1. What did Mr. Smith see in the morning?

- a) A broken door
- b) A broken window
- c) A new customer
- d) A lost dog

2. Why did Mr. Smith call the police?

- a) He saw a fire
- b) He was afraid of a thief
- c) He lost his keys
- d) He found a wallet

3. What did Officer Lee find?

- a) A thief
- b) A ball
- c) A dog
- d) Some money

4. Who broke the window?

- a) A man
- b) A girl
- c) A boy
- d) The wind

5. What did the boy's parents do?

- a) Paid for the glass
- b) Called the police
- c) Bought a new ball
- d) Said nothing

Vocabulary: Match A with B:

- | | |
|-----------------|-----------------------|
| 1- Nabbed | ()How is it possible |
| 2- I'm positive | ()wait a moment |
| 3- Get it | ()Understand |
| 4- Come on | ()Please be serious. |
| 5- Hold on | ()I'm certain |
| 6- How on earth | ()stolen |

Grammar: Choose the correct answer:

- 1- Yesterday, sara (was – is - am) playing at the park.
- 2- Sara is (tall – tallest – taller) than Maha.
- 3- Laila is (smart – smarter – the smartest).
- 4- The passive of : Nora writes a note. is:
(the note is written – the note will written – the note write)
- 5- While I was studying, you (were playing – plays - played)
- 6- I (was eat – eating – was eating) when you called me.
- 7- She (use – use to – used to) drink tea but now she doesn't.
- 8- He (do – did - has) not call me yesterday.
- 9- My team is (best – better – good) than your team.
- 10- two years ago I (live – lived – was living) in Dubai, but I live in Riyadh now.
- 11- The passive of : Sama drives a car. Is:
(Sama driving – the car is driven – the car will drive)