Cars  The first car was a machine that had three wheels and was powered by steam It was built in France in 1769 it was heavy and moved very slow .  Many factories produced steam-driven cars during the 1890s and 1900s but the disadvantage of steam was that water had to be boiled before the car could go. Nowadays cars work on gas electric , and even on water , which prove that science never stop inventing
