Every year, on the 23rd September, all Saudis across the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia celebrate their National Day. It is one of the most important events not only in Saudi Arabia but also in the whole region. In 1932, King Abdulaziz Al-Saud unified the nation and created the modern kingdom. People of all ages, especially young men, drive their cars waving Saudi flags. They even paint their cars green, or draw the Saudi flag on them. Moreover, on that special day people can visit museums and parks and get some taste of Saudi culture and hospitality. They can try traditional Saudi food and watch the traditional Saudi sword dance – ardash. The Saudi National Day is an opportunity not only for celebration but also to get to know Saudi history, tradition and culture better. If you ever have the chance to visit Saudi Arabia on that specific day, you will definitely enjoy it!
