Anthony jumped off the school bus and raced through the front door, leaving his jacket, shoes and backpack in a trail behind him. " Mom , Mom " he called .Guess what we studied in school today ? Anthony's mom had been cutting celery to go with some peanut butter for his afternoon snack. Smiling at his excitement, she stopped what she was doing and asked : What did you study ? . We learned all about Canada today . " Anthony answered " . That's where are you from , right ? His mom nodded her head . Tell me what you learned . Well. " Anthony started as he sat down on a chair at the counter " We learned that Canada has almost 34 million people . We learned that there are two official languages : English and French " Oui! " said his mother with a smile . We learned that lots of neat things come from Canada! . like what ? " mom asked " . My teacher says that Canada produces tons of wheat and fish, like Salmon. He also said that a lot of movies and some T.V shows are filmed up in Canada. He says that many celebrities like actors and singers come from Canada too . His mom was smiling again as she put Anthony's snack in front of him. My teacher asked who we thought was the most important and influential person who came from Canada." Oh, and who would that be ? " his mom asked, sitting down on the chair beside him." I told him it was you, Mom " Anthony said with big grin as he bit into the celery.
