READING

Directions: Read the following then answer questions 10 to 15.

Text 1

- 1 Walt Disney was born on 5 December 1901, in Chicago. He developed an interest in art and took lessons at Chicago Art Institute.
- 2 In 1919, he moved to Kansas City where he got a series of jobs, before finding employment in his area of greatest interest the film industry. It was working for the Kansas City Film Ad company that he gained the opportunity to begin working in the relatively new field of animation.
- 3 Disney decided to move to Hollywood, California which was home to the growing film industry in America. He created the character Mickey Mouse. Ub Iwerks drew Mickey Mouse, and Walt gave a voice to the character.
- 4 The Mickey Mouse cartoons became very popular and reinforced the growing reputation of Disney Productions. The skill of Walt Disney was to give his cartoons believable real-life characteristics. They were skillfully depicted and captured the imagination of the audience.
- 5 In the late 1940s, Walt Disney began building up plans for a massive Theme Park. Walt Disney wished the Theme Park to be like nothing ever created on earth. In particular, he wanted it to be a magical world for children and surrounded by a train. After several years in the planning and building, Disneyland opened on July 17, 1955.

Text 2

- 1 I'm Ali Hassan. I was born in 1980 and raised in Doha. My favourite hobby was drawing cartoon faces of people and animals, and my parents were always encouraging me to improve my skill through more practice and learning.
- 2 My art teacher guided me to attend workshops where I learnt a lot more about drawing cartoon images and became the cartoonist of the school magazine.
- 3 I realized that children are the main audience when referring to the cartoons. A good cartoonist is one who can extract the main details of an object or a human being and simplify in shapes so that a child can recognize and be attracted to what he or she's looking at.
- 4 In 2002, I graduated from university and decided to have a job. At first, it was hard for me to find a job where I could practice my lifetime hobby and use the skill I'd always possessed. I worked as an editor in a local newspaper whose main task was to review articles sent by avid readers.
- 5 Two years later, I started to write articles myself with cartoon drawings that tell a joke or make a humorous criticism. It was a real success for me when I realized that most, if not all, the readers liked my drawings.

Do not write below this line.

6 Walt Disney died of lung cancer in 1966. After his death, his brother Roy lead The Disney Company, but it missed the direction and genius of Walt Disney.

6 The success I made enabled me to set up my own art studio, and then I became the creator of a successful cartoon series. I made illustrations for many books written by famous authors. I also wrote cartoon strips published in different newspapers.
