A-Read the text then answer the questions:

Yesterday there was a princess sitting at a café. She wasn't drinking tea. She was reading a book there. Suddenly, she saw that her ring was missing. She looked for her ring, but she couldn't find it. A lady who was watching nearby told her, "A thief stole your ring! He was wearing a red T-shirt!" The princess went to the police and asked for help.

Ahmed and Omar were playing in the forest and saw a man was digging in the land. He hid the ring under the tree. Ahmed and Omar found the ring!" It's the princess's ring! A thief stole it from her. I read about it on the internet," said Omar.

Ahmed and Omar went to the princess's house to give her the ring. She was so happy to see it again.

-Read the text and write true or false.

On Sunday the 6th October, Mrs. Sara Ahmed, a famous author, visited our school. Our visitor looked comfortable in her jeans and white shirt. She talked about one of her well- known books, called “The Festival”. It’s a story about two friends who met by accident in a festival.

Some students at the school read the book two months ago and asked the author some questions. After that, Mrs. Sara told the students some jokes and everyone laughed. She wasn’t serious or shy at all.

Choose the correct answer.

1-What is the text MAINLY about?

- A. Sara’s visit to the zoo
- B. Sara’s visit to our school
- C. Sara’s visit to the art exhibition
- D. Sara’s visit to the shopping centre
