Wish +past simple/past perfect

Wishes about the present and future

We use 'wish' + past simple: to express that we want a situation in the present (or future) to be different.

Examples:

1- I wish I spoke Italian. (I don't speak Italian.)

2- I wish I had a big car. (I don't have a big car.)

Wishes about the past

We use 'wish' + past perfect: to express a regret, or that we want a situation in the past to be different.

Examples:

1- I wish I hadn't eaten so much. (I ate a lot.)

2-I wish I had studied harder at school. (I was lazy at school.)

Prefixes

Prefixes are letters which we add to the beginning of a word to make a new word with a different meaning. Prefixes can, for example, create a new word opposite in meaning to the word the prefix is attached to.

| Prefix | Meaning / Usage   | Examples                               |
|--------|---|--|
| un-    | opposite/negation, remove, reverse, not (most common)   | happy - un happy                |
| dis-   | reverse or remove (used with some adjectives)   | honest – dis honest             |
| il-    | not (used with some adjectives beginning with $L$ )   | legal – il legal                |
| im-    | Not, opposite (used with some adjectives beginning with P or M )                            | possible -im possible       |
| ir-    | Not (used with some adjectives beginning with $\mathbf{R}$ )  | regular – ir regular            |
| in-    | Not (used with some adjectives, with words that start with consonants and vowels, but not i or u ) | appropriate –in appropriate |

Grammar Adverbs of manner

Adverbs of manner tell us how something happens. They are usually placed either after the main verb or after the object.

Examples:

| - He swims well.   | - He ran quickly . | - He plays the flute beautifully . (after |
|--------------------|---------------------------|--|
| the direct object) |                           |  |

If there is a preposition before the verb's object, you can place the adverb of manner either before the preposition or after the object.

| Examples:     | - The child ran happily towards his mother. | - The child ran |
|---------------|--|-----------------|
| towards his n | nother happily.                                    |                 |

| Most adverbs are formed by adding - ly to an adjective. |                      |                          |            |  |
|--|----------------------|--------------------------|------------|--|
| Examples:suddenly  | - bad / badly | - quiet / quietly | - sudden / |  |
| suddenry   |                      |                          |            |  |

*but there are sometimes changes in spelling: - easy / easily - gentle / gently

A few adverbs of manner have the same form as the adjective: Examples: - They all worked hard. - She usually arrives late. - I hate driving fast.

Use to / Used to

Used to = an action or habit that was common in the PAST but not anymore. Notice how Used to ends in -ed which normally means the verb is in the past tense. Examples:

- I used to drink coffee every morning but now I drink tea.

- She used to live in London but now she lives in New York.

Used to in Negative

It is NOT common to use Used to in negative form.

To make the negative, use "didn't" + use + to + verb. (Remove the final /d/ ending from "used".)

Examples:

- I used to like her, but now I hate her.
- I didn't use to like her but now I think she is great.

Many times, we use never instead of didn't. In this case we use "used" in past tense. Compare:

- I didn't use to smoke.
- I never used to smoke.

Used to in Questions

As with normal questions in the past tense, we use the base form of the verb (not the verb in past tense), since the auxiliary DID shows us that the question is in the past tense.

Examples:

- + I used to ride a bike to school every day.
- I didn't use to ride a bike to school. I would normally go by bus.
- ? Did you use to ride a bike to school when you were a child?

Some more examples:

- What did you use to do after school when you were a kid?
- Where did you use to go on vacation with your parents?

Do as shown between brackets:

| 1- After scoring the goal, the footballer shouted (crazy).                 | (Correct) |
|--|-----------|
| 2- They ( use ) to spend their time reading or playing board games. | (Correct) |

Grammar Relative clauses and pronouns (who, which, where, whose)

Relative clauses are non-essential parts of a sentence. They may add meaning, but if they are removed, the sentence will still function grammatically. There are two broad types of relative clauses in English.

DEFINING CLAUSES

A defining clause tells us which specific person or thing we are talking about in a larger group of people or things. If a defining relative clause is removed, the meaning of the sentence changes significantly. A defining relative clause is not separated from the rest of the sentence by commas or parentheses.

Examples:

- The woman who visited me in the hospital was very kind.
- The umbrella that I bought last week is already broken.

NON-DEFINING CLAUSES

A non-defining clause gives us more information about the person or thing we are talking about. If a non-defining relative clause is removed from a sentence, we lose some detail, but the overall meaning of the sentence remains the same. Non-defining relative clauses are always set off from the rest of the sentence with commas or parentheses.

Examples:

- The author, who graduated from the same university I did, gave a wonderful presentation.
- My mother, who is 86, lives in Paris.

Third Conditional

The third conditional talks about the past. It's used to describe a situation that didn't happen, and to imagine the result of this situation.

| Third conditional: If+ past perfect | would have + past participle |
|-------------------------------------|------------------------------|
|-------------------------------------|------------------------------|

Examples:

- If she had studied, she would have passed the exam (but really, we know she didn't study and so she didn't pass)

- If I hadn't eaten so much, I wouldn't have felt sick (but I did eat a lot, and so I did feel sick).

Unless = if not

Examples:

1-If you don't exert more effort, you won't achieve your goals. (Unless)

Unless you exert more effort, you won't achieve your goals.

2-If she doesn't convince the employer, he will fire her. (Unless)

Unless she convinces the employer, he will fire her.

3-If he didn't apologize to me, I would never speak to him again. (Unless)

Unless he apologized to me, I would never speak to him again.

Summary Making

We are living in the world where technology almost surpassed humanity. Don't you think it is making learners lazy day by day? They are becoming dependent on technology for their assignments rather than using their brains for the thought process. As humans are not error-free, similarly technology too does not come error-free. There are lots of problems like server error and connectively problems which take a lot of time to troubleshoot it. Cheating is an illegal activity but technology made it more powerful and easy to use with its powerful wings. It really becomes very tough to control this activity, especially in the examination environment.

"What are the disadvantages of technology in the field of education?"

Summary Making

Whales are the largest animals in the world, even larger than some species of dinosaurs. Ironically, whales are among the gentlest creatures we know. There are people who go through great length to help them. Whales live in the ocean but in terms of behavior, they are more similar to humans than fish. They live in family groups and they even travel in groups when they have to migrate from cooler to warmer waters. The young stay with their parents for as long as fifteen years. Whales are known not to desert the ill or injured members; instead, they cradle them. Moreover, female whales have very strong maternal instincts.

Reading Comprehension

Reading the following text, and then answer some questions below:

Winter is cold in some places. Many plants do not grow during winter. Some plants die. Snow and ice may cover the ground. It can be hard for animals to find food during winter. Animals get through this time in many ways.

Birds and butterflies can fly. Many of them do not stick around for the winter. They leave. They go to a place with nice and warmer weather. Then they come home in the spring time. We call this migration. Migration means the movement from one place to the other for different reasons. Migrating is a good way to avoid the cold.

Another good way to avoid the cold is to sleep through it. Many animals hide during the winter. Their bodies slow down. They save their energy. They do not eat. They live off of their fat. They do this until food returns. We call this hibernation.

Snakes, frogs, and bears hibernate. Some animals store food in their homes. They do not sleep all winter, but they do much less. They live on what they saved in the summer and fall. This is what squirrels, beavers, and raccoons do. Skunks do this too.

Other animals tough it out. They do not leave. They do not hide. They must survive. Sometimes nature helps them out. Some animals grow thicker coats in the winter. Other animals change their color. For example; the arctic fox is brown in the summer. His coat turns white in the winter.

Winter may be pretty. It is nice to see snow on the trees. But it is dangerous too. People are also at risk and danger. You can get frost bitten or worse. How do you beat the winter? Do you wear a thick coat? Do you stay inside? Or do you live somewhere warm?
