

Have you ever visited Souq Al-Mubarakiya in downtown Kuwait? It is 200 years old and one of the oldest markets in Kuwait. This market's design is inspired of the old Kuwaiti buildings. Everywhere you go in this market, you'll find a part of the Kuwaiti culture. Even the lights and streets shows it.

Souq Al-Mubarakiya is the most visited place in Kuwait. It is visited by many people from Kuwait and the Gulf Countries everyday. There are many festivities in the SoMo area. People can enjoy shopping and buying traditional food, sweets, clothes and jewellery. They can also go to restaurants and enjoy the Kuwaiti cuisine. The more you visit this amazing place, the more you enjoy it!

An Amazing Place In Kuwait

The place

oldest markets

design of
the buildings

part of the culture

lights and
streets

What people can do there

enjoy the atmosphere

buy food,
clothes and
jewellery

attend
festivities

shopping and
meeting
friends