Family celebrations: Birthday:

It was an unforgettable moment when I was invited to my friend's birthday. I remember that day exactly. Almost all my friends came to that party. My friend invited all his friends and relatives. Actually I was very delighted when I got his invitation.

At 7 o'clock in the evening I arrived at the party. That night was very warm and nice. I sat with my close friends who came from remote areas we talked and laughed together. All preparations were arranged and made. At the beginning my friend made a touching speech. We were influenced by his touching speech we drank soft drinks and sang together. Then he invited us to a fantastic lunch he prepared especially for the party. It contained so many kinds of food.

We talked about our memories and remembered our school days. We played some funny games.

It was the most fantastic party I have ever attended. I saw almost all my best friends. at the end of the party, we wished my friend a happy new year and a happy birthday and gave him some gifts.

The returning from Hajj ceremony

Making a pilgrimage, or Hajj, to Mecca and is one of the five pillars of Islam. The return from Hajj is an occasion when people in Kuwait celebrate the people who visited Makkah house is adorned with flowers and the walls are filled with pictures and writings which welcome the pilgrim.

My grandfather who returned from Hajj with my grandmother said they were pleased to fulfill their religious duty. "It is a difficult duty and you need to do it at a younger age. But it cleanses your soul. When you wear the ihram, you feel like you have turned a new, blank page in your life. My grandmother said she missed us when she left for hajj, but she longed to go back once she returned to Kuwait. "I had a hard time leaving the holy lands, home of our Prophet Muhammad,"

May God bless all Muslims and have them perform hajj.

Baby shower:

One of the most important events in Kuwait is visiting our friends to congratulate them for the newborn baby.

When the new parents are ready to receive guest's family members, friends and relatives are gathered to pay them a visit.

People usually buy precious gifts for the baby. For example, some people buy golden necklaces or earrings. Or they may buy clothes, prams or cribs for the new born baby. this party is held to celebrate the birth of the new baby and to help the new parents into parenthood. Soft traditional drinks are usually served to the guests. Older people give the new parents some pieces of advice about taking care of the baby.

At the end of the party, people greet each other and congratulations are exchanged wishing the new parents and the new baby a happy and pleasant life.
