Grammar unit 8

Reported Speech (Indirect Speech)

If we report what another person has said, we usually do not use the speaker's exact words (direct speech), but reported (indirect) speech. Therefore, you need to learn how to transform direct speech into reported speech. The structure is a little different depending on whether you want to transform a statement, question or request.

1- Statements:

When reporting statements, check whether you have to:

- 1- Change pronouns
- 2- Change tenses
- 3- Change place and time expressions

Tense	Direct Speech	Reported Speech
1- present simple	"I speak English well."	He said (that) he spoke English well.
2- present continuous	"I am living in London."	Ali said (that) he was living in London.
3- present perfect	"I haven't seen Julie."	She said (that) she hadn't seen Julie.
4- past simple	"I bought a car."	He said (that) he had bought a car. or He said (that) he bought a car.
5- past continuous	"I was walking along the street."	Sami said (that) he had been walking along the street.
6- past perfect	"I had taken English lessons before."	She said (that) she had taken English lessons before.
7- will	"I will see you later."	He told me (that) he would see me later.
8- can	"I can speak perfect English."	She said (that) she could speak perfect English.
11- shall	"I shall come later."	She said (that) she would come later.
12- should	"I should call my mother."	She said (that) she should call her mother.
13- may	"I may be late."	She said (that) she might be late.
14- must	"I must study at the weekend."	She said (that) she must study at the weekend. or She said (that) she had to study at the weekend.

2- Questions:

We have two kinds of questions:

-Wh-questions:

When reporting wh-questions, check whether you have to:

- 1- Change pronouns
- 2- Change tenses
- 3- Change place and time expressions
- 4- Change the word order of the question

Direct Question	Reported Question
"Where is your book?"	He asked me where my book was .
"What are you doing?"	She asked me what I was doing .
"Why haven't you listened to my advice?"	He asked me why I hadn't listened to his advice.
"Where did you live all this period?"	She asked me where I had lived/lived all that period.

-Yes/no- questions:

When reporting yes/no- questions, check whether you have to:

- 1- Change Pronouns
- 2- Change Tenses
- 3- Change Place and time expressions
- 4- Change the word order of the question
- 5- Use "if / whether" before the reported question

Direct Question	Reported Question
"Can you call me tomorrow?"	He asked me if I could call him the following day .
"Have you ever been to Mexico?"	She asked me if I had ever been to Mexico
"Are you living here?"	She asked me if I was living there .
"Did you see this film?"	She asked me if I had seen/saw that film.

3- Orders:

When transforming requests, check whether you have to:

- 1- Change pronouns
- 2- Change place and time expressions
- 3- Use "to" before the reported request and "not to" before the negative request

Direct Order	Reported Order
"Do your homework now."	He ordered me to do my homework then .
"Don't waste your time on silly things."	He told her not to waste her time on silly things.
"Be on time!"	He told me to be on time .
"Don't smoke!"	He ordered us not to smoke .

Note1:

When the reporting verb is in the simple present tense, we should pay attention that tenses are not changed when reported.

Example:

- "I live in a big city with my family."

He says (that) he lives in a big city with his family.

Note2:

There are many reporting verbs other than "say, ask, tell and order" like: explain, report, admit, promise, reply, confirm, prefer, like, want, warn, advise, ...

Examples:

- "I am late because of a sandstorm at the airport."

He explained that he was late because of a sandstorm at the airport.

- "We will come if we can."

They replied that they would come if they could.

Note3:

Requests can come sometimes in the form of yes/no-questions. In this case, we can report them in two ways:

Examples:

- "Can you give me your book, please?"

He asked me to give him my book.

Or

He asked me if/whether I could give him my book.

Note4:

The following table explains other changes when we report sentences:

Grammar unit 11

Stative vs. Dynamic Verbs

1- Dynamic verbs:

Verbs which refer to actions are called dynamic verbs.

We can use them in simple and continuous tenses:

I usually drink coffee every morning for breakfast.

This morning I am drinking tea.

2- Stative verbs:

Verbs which refer to conditions or states are called stative verbs.

We do not usually use these verbs in continuous tenses:

I believe traffic pollution is bad for us. ( Not I am believing )

Do you know where she lives? ( Not Are you knowing )

We use stative verbs to express what we think or believe and how we feel.

This is a list of common stative verbs and example sentences:

a- Thinking Verbs

■ know	We don't know what to do.
■ realize	Do you realize how disappointed I am ?
■ suppose	I suppose she's spent all her money.
■ understand	I don't understand much about science.
■ agree	I agree with you.
■ believe	He believes in everything he reads in the newspaper.
■ expect	Do you expect to see him tomorrow.
■ suspect	I suspect she's caught my cold.
■ think	Do you think things are getting worse.
■ reckon	I reckon to leave at 3 o'clock.

b- Feeling Verbs

■ fear	I fear the world is becoming a more dangerous place.
■ hate	Some animals hate the rain.
■ like	She likes animals.
■ love	He loves activity holidays.

We can use some thinking \ believing verbs in continuous tenses.

If we do this their meaning changes:

I think we should protect wild animals. ( think = believe )

I am thinking about getting a bike. ( think = consider )

I expect things will improve. ( expect = believe )

I am expecting a letter from my penfriend. ( expect = wait for )

H. Correct the following verbs in brackets:

1- When Ali (come)..... Home yesterday, I (make)..... the supper. By six o'clock I (work)..... for eight hours, so I (need)..... a good meal.

5- I (play) ..... tennis every Tuesday. Last week, I (play)..... with John, a man I am (know)..... from work, when a bird (fly)..... into the tennis net.

Adverb Clauses

An adverb may be a single word such as quickly, here or yesterday, or a phrase such as the day before yesterday or to see my mother. However, adverbs can also be clauses, containing a subject and a full verb. This page will explain the basic types of adverb clauses (sometimes called "adverbial clauses") and how to recognize them.

Adverbs, adverb phrases, and adverb clauses

Look at these sentences:

I saw the movie yesterday.

I saw the movie on Friday.

I saw the movie before I went to the party.

In the first sentence, "yesterday" is a one-word adverb, "on Friday" is an adverb phrase, and "before I left for Calgary" is an adverb clause. All of them answer the question "When?", but the adverb clause has a subject ("I") and a full verb ("left"). It is introduced by "before", so it is a dependent clause. This means that it cannot stand alone: "Before I left for Calgary" would not be a full sentence. It needs a main clause ("I saw the movie"). An adverb clause, then, is a dependent clause that does the same job as an adverb or an adverb phrase.

Types of adverb clause

There are many types of adverb clauses. Here are some examples of the most common types:

Type	Example
Place	Wherever there are computers, there is Microsoft software.
Time	After the fruit is harvested, it is sold at the market.
Cause	I didn't go to school because I was sick.
Purpose	She took a computer course so that she could get a better job.
Concession	Although Ali has a Master's degree, he works as a store clerk.
Condition	If you save your money, you will be able to go to college.

As you can see from the examples above, most adverb clauses can be recognized because they are introduced by a particular word or phrase (such as "when" and "so that"). These words and phrases are called subordinating conjunctions, and there are many of them, including these:

Place	where, wherever...
Time	after, before, until, as soon as, when, once, by the time...
Cause	because, since, as, as long as, so long as, due to the fact that
Purpose	so that, in order that
Concession (opposition)	while, though, although, even though, whereas...
Condition	if, unless, whether

Grammar unit 12

Reported Speech (Indirect Speech)

If we report what another person has said, we usually do not use the speaker's exact words (direct speech), but reported (indirect) speech. Therefore, you need to learn how to transform direct speech into reported speech. The structure is a little different depending on whether you want to transform a statement, question or request.

1- Statements:

When reporting statements, check whether you have to:

- 1- Change pronouns
- 2- Change tenses
- 3- Change place and time expressions

Tense	Direct Speech	Reported Speech
1- present simple	"I live in Kuwait."	He said (that) he lived in Kuwait.
2- present continuous	"I am studying in France."	He said (that) he was studying in France.
3- present perfect	"I haven't seen Julie."	She said (that) she hadn't seen Julie.
4- past simple	"I bought a car."	She said (that) she had bought a car. or She said (that) she bought a car.
5- past continuous	"I was walking along the street."	She said (that) she had been walking along the street.
6- past perfect	"I had taken English lessons before."	She said (that) she had taken English lessons before.
7- will	"I will see you later."	She said (that) she would see me later.
8- would	"I would help, but..."	She said (that) she would help but...
9- can	"I can speak perfect English."	She said (that) she could speak perfect English.
10- could	"I could swim when I was four."	She said (that) she could swim when she was four.
11- shall	"I shall come later."	She said (that) she would come later.
12- should	"I should call my mother."	She said (that) she should call her mother.
13- might	"I might be late."	She said (that) she might be late.
14- must	"I must study at the weekend."	She said (that) she must study at the weekend. or She said (that) she had to study at the weekend.

2- Questions:

We have two kinds of questions:

-Wh-questions:

When reporting wh-questions, check whether you have to:

- 1- Change the word order of the question
- 2- Change pronouns
- 3- Change tenses
- 4- Change place and time expressions

Direct Question	Reported Question
"Where did you put my book?"	She asked me where I put / had put her book.
"What are you doing?"	She asked me what I was doing .
"Why are you late?"	He asked me why I was late.
"Where do you live?"	She asked me where I lived .

-Yes/no- questions:

When reporting yes/no- questions, check whether you have to:

- 1- Change the word order of the question
- 2- Use " if / whether " before the reported question
- 3- Change Pronouns
- 4- Change Tenses
- 5- Change Place and time expressions

Direct Question	Reported Question
"Can you call me?"	He asked me if I could call him.
"Have you ever been to Mexico?"	She asked me if I had ever been to Mexico
"Are you living here?"	She asked me if I was living there .
"Do you like chocolate?"	She asked me if I liked chocolate.

3- Orders:

When transforming requests, check whether you have to:

- 1- Change pronouns
- 2- Change place and time expressions
- 3- Use "to" before the reported request and "not to" before the negative request

Direct Order	Reported Order
"Go to bed!"	He ordered the child to go to bed.
"Don't waste your time on silly things."	He told her not to waste her time on silly things.
"Be on time!"	He told me to be on time.
"Don't disturb me, please."	He ordered us not to disturb him.

Note1:

When the reporting verb is in the simple present tense, we should pay attention that tenses are not changed when reported.

Example:

- "I want to go on a journey with my family."

He says (that) he wants to go on a journey with his family.

Note2:

There are many reporting verbs other than "say, ask, tell and order" like: explain, report, admit, promise, reply, confirm, prefer, like, want, warn, advise, ...

Examples:

- "I am late because of a sandstorm at the airport."

He explained that he was late because of a sandstorm at the airport.

- "We'll come if we can."

They replied that they would come if they could.

Note3:

Requests can come sometimes in the form of yes/no-questions. In this case, we can report them in two ways:

Examples:

- "Can you give me your book, please?"

He asked me to give him my book.

Or

He asked me if/whether I could give him my book.

Note4:

The following table explains other changes when we report sentences:

Direct Speech	Reported Speech
today	that day
yesterday	the day before/the previous day
tomorrow	the next day/the following day
last night	the night before/the previous night
here	there
ago	before
now	then /at that moment.
this	that these	those
...days ago	... days before
thus	so / in that way
