B) Reading Comprehension

Read the following passage, then answer the questions:

A recent survey has shown that the busiest shopping street in the world is not in London, New York, or Paris, but in Warsaw. It's called Nowy Swiat, which means New World. An incredible 14,000 Poles walk down this main street every hour. It is a lovely place to shop. The pavements are very wide. There are statues, palaces, attractive town houses, exclusive cafés, and high-class restaurants. The buildings thereby aren't too tall. They look too old, but in fact the whole city was rebuilt after World War II. There aren't any billboards or neon lights. There isn't any loud music, and there aren't many tourists. People think that Polish shops have nothing to sell, so nobody comes shopping here.

The world doesn't know about this paradise for shoppers-yet. It is now possible to buy almost everything in Warsaw. There are a lot of shops from the West, but the interesting thing is that Polish manufacturers are now producing high quality goods. Nowy Swiat has a lot of small shops, specialist shops, and chic shops. It hasn't got huge department stores that sell the same things everywhere. If you want an exquisite hand-made suit, Nowy Swiat is the place to go. It isn't cheap of course for you'll have to pay about £ 1,000. It is possible to travel the world and find the same things for sale in every country. But Warsaw is different because its shops are unique.
