B) READING COMPREHENSION ( 16 Marks )

Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

Stories can tell you many things about life. Some stories are about real things in the world, others are not. Long ago, people told each other stories about real people who had done great things. Nowadays, we can read stories in books or watch them in films and on television.

The story writer writes his story and makes it scary, funny or sad. He draws pictures of his story characters to make it easy for children to see their faces and to understand what they are doing or saying.

Around the world, there are many famous stories people like to read and tell. In Africa, people tell stories about a spider called Anansi who likes to play tricks on other animals. Jack and the Giant is another famous story from Britain. Jack climbs a huge tree to steal a golden hen from a bad giant.
