

Grade 9

Writing Unit : (7)

Many countries encourage young people to start their own business.

Plan and write a two-paragraph report discussing the skills that teenagers need when starting a business ,and the role of the local community in helping their business grow.

Introduction:

Many teenagers want to start their own business .

Paragraph : (1) (Skills teenagers need when starting a business) :

Topic sentence :

Teenagers need some skills to start a business.

Supporting details:

- First, they need communication skills to talk to customers.
- Also, they need planning skills to organize their work.
- In addition, they need problem-solving skills to face problems.
- For example, they can find solutions when things go wrong .

Concluding sentence:

These skills help them succeed.

Paragraph: (2) (The role of the local community):

Topic sentence:

The community helps teenagers start their businesses.

Supporting details:

- First, families help by giving advice and money.
- Also, friends encourage them to continue.
- In addition, schools teach useful skills.
- For example, students learn through projects.

Concluding sentence:

This support helps business grow.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, teenagers need skills and support to succeed.

Teenagers and Business

Many teenagers want to start their own business. They need some skills to start it. First, they need communication skills to talk to customers. Also, they need planning skills to organize their work. In addition, they need problem-solving skills to face problems. For example, they can find solutions when things go wrong. Finally, these skills help them succeed.

The community helps teenagers start their businesses. First, families help by giving advice and money. Also, friends encourage them to continue. In addition, schools teach useful skills. For example, students learn through projects. This support helps businesses grow. In conclusion, teenagers need skills and support to succeed.