Life in the City

The city is a very busy and crowded place. Many people live in tall skyscrapers and work in offices. The streets are full of traffic, and cars move slowly because there are so many of them. You can find many shops, schools, and hospitals nearby. The city is exciting but sometimes noisy. Some people like the city because there are many things to do, and others prefer the countryside because it is more quiet. My cousin lives in a small village, so when I visit her, I can see animals and farms. I love both places, but I think city life is faster.

Choose the correct answer.

1. What word best describes the city?

- a) quiet b) busy c) empty

2. What can you find in the city?

- a) farms and animals b) tall skyscrapers c) fishing boats

3. Why do cars move slowly in the city?

- a) There is too much traffic
b) People are walking fast
c) The roads are small

4. How is the city different from the countryside?

- a) The city is quieter
b) The city is busier
c) The city has more farms

5. What does the writer think about city life?

My Grandfather's Farm

My grandfather lives in a village far from the city. His house is near a big farm with many animals. Every morning, he drives his tractor to the fields and works hard. The air is fresh, and the sky is blue. There are no skyscrapers or tall buildings. The streets are quiet, but sometimes busy when people go to the market. My grandfather grows vegetables and sells them. He says village life is simple and happy. The city is modern but noisy, so he prefers his small, peaceful village. I love visiting him because I can play with the animals.

Animals in the Countryside

T. Aisha Aladab

In the countryside, people live close to nature. They keep animals like cows, goats, and chickens. Farmers drive tractors and work in the fields. The village is quiet, but sometimes busy when people go to the market. There are no skyscrapers, and there is very little traffic. Children play outside because the air is fresh and clean. My cousin lives in the city, and she says it is exciting but crowded. She can see tall buildings and buses everywhere. I think both places are special, yet I prefer the peaceful life of the countryside.

Choose the correct answer.

1.What do people in the countryside keep?

- a) computers b) animals c) books

2.What do farmers drive?

- a) tractors b) buses c) bicycles

3.How is the countryside different from the city?

- a) It is quieter and has less traffic
b) It has more skyscrapers
c) It is noisier

4.What does the writer's cousin think of the city?

- a) It is boring
b) It is exciting
c) It is quiet

5.What does the writer prefer?

- a) Peaceful countryside life
b) Crowded city life
c) Noisy traffic

City and Village Friends

My best friend lives in the city, and I live in the village. When I visit her, I see many skyscrapers, cars, and traffic. The city is very busy and full of people. It is exciting, but sometimes loud. When she comes to visit me, she hears birds, sees animals, and rides my father's tractor. My village is small but beautiful. We play outside, and the streets are quiet. She likes the city because she can go to the mall, and I like the village because I can run and play. We both enjoy our homes, yet they are very different.

Choose the correct answer.

1. Where does the writer live?

- a) In the city b) In the village c) In a skyscraper

2. What does the friend see in the city?

- a) farms and animals
b) skyscrapers and traffic
c) tractors and cows

3. What is the village like?

- a) busy and crowded
b) quiet and beautiful
c) full of shops

4. Why does the friend like the city?

- a) Because she can go to the mall
b) Because it is quiet
c) Because there are tractors

5. What is the main idea of the text?

- a) City and village life are both special
b) The city is better than the village
c) The village is boring
